THE CHOIRS OF ALL SAINTS'

We're glad you're with us today!

We welcome you to All Saints'. If you are new to us, we hope you will introduce yourself to our clergy after the service.

All Saints' is an active church with a pre-K through 8th grade day school. As an Episcopal church and school, we are part of the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona, The Episcopal Church (TEC), and the worldwide Anglican Communion. All Saints' is a vibrant, diverse community with a wide range of views—united in our commitment to follow Christ as we pray, learn, and serve together. In so doing, we connect with each other, with God, and with those in need.

At the heart of all that we do is our worship of God. Page numbers in the order of service refer to the red Book of Common Prayer and hymns are in the blue Hymnal 1982. We experience the real presence of Christ in the bread and wine of our Holy Communion, and we invite all baptized Christians from any Christian church or tradition to eat and drink at the Eucharistic feast with us. Children are active participants in our community, and baptized children are welcome to receive communion (for information on baptism, call the Church Office).

Wherever you are in your journey of faith, we hope you will feel the loving, transforming presence of God here. If you are looking for a church home, we invite you to get to know us better. You may fill out a visitor card in the pew and put it in the collection basin at the offertory, or speak with a hospitality volunteer or clergy person. You are also welcome to call the Church Office during the week at 602.279.5539. Our clergy love to meet with newcomers, and we can share the next steps in exploring membership at All Saints'. We also invite you to join us for fellowship and refreshments. Receivers for the hearing impaired are available in the narthex (the lobby area).

Please prepare for worship in silence.

THE COLLECT

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings.

READING FROM THE OLD TESTAMENT

BARUCH 5:1-9

Take off the garment of your sorrow and affliction, O Jerusalem, and put on forever the beauty of the glory from God. Put on the robe of the righteousness that comes from God; put on your head the diadem of the glory of the Everlasting; for God will show your splendor everywhere under heaven. For God will give you evermore the name, "Righteous Peace, Godly Glory." Arise, O Jerusalem, stand upon the height; look toward the east, and see your children gathered from west and east at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God has remembered them. For they went out from you on foot, led away by their enemies; but God will bring them back to you, carried in glory, as on a royal throne. For God has ordered that every high mountain and the everlasting hills be made low and the valleys filled up, to make level ground, so that Israel may walk safely in the glory of God. The woods and every fragrant tree have shaded Israel at God's command. For God will lead Israel with joy, in the light of his glory, with the mercy and righteousness that come from him.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

CANTICLE 16 The Song of Zechariah sung by the Choir

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; *

he has come to his people and set them free.

He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *

born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old,

that he would save us from our enemies, *

from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers * and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, *

to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, *

holy and righteous in his sight

all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, *

for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,

To give his people knowledge of salvation *

by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God *

the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness

and the shadow of death, *

and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

READING FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

PHILIPPIANS 1:3-11

I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus. And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please be seated while the congregation takes communion.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

All Baptized Christians are invited to come forward to receive the sacrament. Place one hand over the other to receive the bread. You may either drink from the chalice or intinct (dip the bread in the wine). If you prefer, you may come forward instead for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like one of our lay Prayer Team members to pray with you during the administration of communion, please use the side aisles to go to the last pew on either side of the back of the church. You may seek prayer either before or after receiving communion. All prayers are confidential.
