THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL (10AM ONLY)

Pre-k (4 years old) to grade 5 are invited to follow the children's cross for a time of worship, returning at the Peace.

Please be seated for the readings.

FIRST LESSON

A Reading from the Book of Job

42:1-6, 10-17

Job answered the LORD:

“I know that you can do all things,
and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
‘Hear, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you declare to me.’
I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you;
therefore I despise myself,
and repent in dust and ashes.”

And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job’s daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children’s children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 34:1-8

5 & 8: SPOKEN, 10: SUNG BY CHOIR

- 1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
- 2 I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt his Name together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
- 5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction, and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!

SECOND LESSON

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

7:23-28

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

Stanzas 1-2 before, 3-4 after

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO MARK

10:46-52

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[Jesus and his disciples] came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.” So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Written by the Confirmation Class of 2024

Father, help the Church remember those in need, and teach Your Church to welcome all with open hearts and hear all with open minds. Be with all your people, known and unknown to your Church, and surround them with your Love. Father, in Your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Lord, teach our leaders to listen to those with authentic concerns, and help them treat everyone with equality and justice. We especially pray for all those running for public office, that they may seek wise and kind hearts from You. Lord, in Your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Creator, grant us steady hands and courageous hearts, that we may partner with You in our world to help those affected by violence and disaster, especially those injured by Hurricanes Helene and Milton, and those harmed by war. Create a spirit of peace, hope, and reconciliation in your people. Creator, in Your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Loving God, we pray for all those in our community, especially those who are experiencing homelessness or violence because of their differences. Bless all who are under-resourced, and grant peace to all who are suffering. We pray especially for those who have asked for our prayers:

Loving God, in Your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Comforter, we pray for all we loved who have died, that they find their rest and glory in You, especially our friends

. We pray for all who loved and are living, that they find comfort and consolation in You.

Please, God, let all fears and pain be known, so that all fears and pain can be healed. Comforter, in Your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

We pray for the victims and all those impacted by recent devastating weather and natural disasters around the country.

We pray for peace in our world and an end to armed conflict everywhere.

We pray for all the men and women in the uniformed and armed services and their families.

We pray for the clergy and people of the St. Anthony on the Desert in Scottsdale, the Church of Scotland, St. Paul's Church and School in Haiti, and Navajoland.

For All Saints' Episcopal Day School: our students, teachers, administrators and support staff.

For all who are visiting us today, may they find our community a place of welcome and spiritual nourishment.

Concluding Collect:

God of all compassion and all justice, open our eyes to see those who need help, and grant us courage to use our gifts to help them. Amen.

sac-ri-ficed for us; there-fore let us keep the feast.
Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

We believe that Holy Communion is a preview of that Heavenly Banquet when all of God's children--from all times and all places--will live in unbroken communion with God and one another. This is the central rite of our tradition. All are welcome to come with us to Christ's table and experience the presence of Christ in the bread and wine made holy. You are welcome to receive just the bread or to cross your arms in front of you to receive a blessing from the clergy.

SENDING FORTH EUCCHARISTIC VISITORS

Deacon: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER BCP 365

Celebrant and People:
Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

College Care Packages Coming: Submit your names

We need your help. Next month, in November, we will be doing our Connect component of CLASP. That means we will be filling college care packages and writing notes to the young people who are away from All Saints' for school and who may need a treat before finals. Please send to Chesirae at cvalentine@allsaintsoncentral.org the names of any All Saints' youth who you think would be someone we should fill and send a care package to. We need the names over the next few weeks so we can buy the supplies and be ready to fill the boxes at CLASP. Please provide the name and address of your suggestions.

MEALS OF MERCY NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

This wonderful ministry helps you or a family member if you are struggling with a short term health crisis, are welcoming a new baby, or have faced a serious loss. The Meals of Mercy feeding ministry is here with a hot meal to give you the strength to get through. If providing this support could be your way to serve, please contact Deacon Patrice Taylor at 623 242-4692 or palshatti@allsaintsoncentral.org. The need right now is sizable, so we need more volunteer help: please contact Lois Francis at lm.francis@hotmail.com or call her at 602 214-0675. You can also help by donating $25 door dash or grub hub gift cards at the Church Office.

REENTRY SIMULATION 'THROUGH OUR LENS'

November 2, 2024 10AM-12NOON
All Saints Episcopal Church
6300 N Central Ave
Phoenix, AZ 85012

The goal of this simulation is for participants to gain an understanding of the significant obstacles faced by men and women attempting to navigate the system upon their release from incarceration and returning home to their communities.

Arquet

Do you remember that feeling of fear and excitement ...

when you started a new job, attended a new school or moved to a new town. Okay, now triple the fear element and imagine that you have to do any one of those things without transportation, secure shelter, employment, income, identification or the support of friends and family. Now imagine that you have children to support.

THAT is the challenge confronted by many of the men and women that are released from prison.

We are bombarded with information about the high recidivism rate for incarcerated people. But most of us lack the information we need to understand why.

If you are curious about why it is so hard for the justice-impacted population to get back on their feet, or why recidivism is so high, join us for a reentry simulation at All Saints' Episcopal Church on November 2 from 10:00am-12noon.

The Reentry Simulation highlights the struggles and challenges faced by individuals who are transitioning into society from incarceration. Over the course of two hours participants experience the first month of post-release life – it's not easy and only a handful of participants will successfully navigate the obstacles that are normal for someone getting out of prison.
