African Proverb: A roaring lion kills no game
Meaning: You can't achieve anything by mere sitting around and just talking about it

Faith and works, works and faith, fit together hand in glove. James 2:14-18

Please pray for these “Big Rock” challenges in our 2015 schedule!
The purpose for these visits is to create workshops on “Counseling”, “Crisis Response” and “Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills”

Patrick and Sue Schmidt serving God in West Africa with the Wycliffe Bible Translators

patrick-sue_schmidt2@sil.org

We are currently on a home assignment with Wycliffe Ministries in Waxhaw, North Carolina until we move to Cameroon in August 2018. We were able to attend and participate in the Missionary Kid Caregivers Summit 2018 conference the week after we arrived in Warsaw. Some insights and new tools were gained and our network for getting resources was expanded. Pray that all the caregivers who attended were refreshed and are able to invest themselves in MK’s with a new passion.

Our son, Eric, continues to work as a flight instructor at CAE Oxford Aviation Academy in Mesa, Arizona. Please pray for his continued safety as he spends many hours in the air. Please pray for our daughter, Joy, as she prepares to move to Nevada this April to begin work as a Nurse Practitioner. Sue’s brother, Al, is taking chemotherapy for stage 4 kidney cancer. Please pray for his healing.

Patrick and Sue Schmidt serving God in Accra, Ghana

We are based in Ghana but recently travelled to Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso to help with bible workshops and counseling programs. The temperature is over 100 degrees! Our son Eric is in Virginia and daughter Joy is in New York City. We remain grateful for your generous support and ask that you continue to pray for God to use us as He pleases.

Prayer Requests

We facilitated a training on “Stress Management” for 25 missionaries and 20 IJM workers with the Great Commission Movement in Africa. Pray for these mature Christian leaders who are investing their lives in evangelizing the present and future leaders. Pray that God will strengthen and empower them as they work with the Ghanaian government to end child labor and abuse.

Patrick and Nathan (Sue’s nephew) will walk a 125-mile portion of the Camino de Santiago in Spain this month. This pilgrimage footpath traces “the way” of James when he brought the gospel to Spain. Pray for safety, health, and spiritual renewal as they make this trip.

Thank you for continuing to pray and partner with us in this ministry with Wycliffe!

31st Wedding Anniversary

October 15th marked our 31st wedding anniversary! Our first and second years of marriage were lived in Ghana. God has brought us full circle 30 years later to again be able to serve Him in Ghana.

Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills (SYIS)

We spent last month in Germany training to be facilitators for the SYIS workshop. It was enriching to work with missionaries from Asia, Europe, and North America.

Mobile Member Care Team (MMCT)

Throughout this year we have been in Accra, Ghana serving 14 countries in West Africa with MMCT. MMCT’s goal is to help missionaries be more resilient through counseling, training, mentoring, crisis response, and inter-mission community-building.

Please continue to pray for our kids, Eric and Joy, that they may succeed in their studies and live to glorify God daily!
