Laura is a member of St. Edward’s parish and a retired professor of history from UW Parkside. In addition, she is a published author and frequent speaker on a variety of topics in SE Wisconsin. Join us in a discussion of The multitude in heaven who pray for the rest of us, inspire us by their example, and remain present to us in ways of which we know not. As St. Thérèse of Lisieux said before her death “I will spend my heaven doing good on earth.”. Don’t miss this!

CULVER’S FUNDRAISER FOR THE LENTEN PROJECT

Barb Hantschel will be selling $10 Culver’s cards every Sunday until Easter at St. Edward’s. The rebate is $1, and Barb will match all rebates. The total rebates will then be donated to the Lenten Project.

If St. Patrick’s, Sacred Heart, and St. Richard’s parishioners wish to purchase cards, please email me and I will bring your cards to whatever Mass you go to.

Fr. Juan's Corner

Grace and Peace to you, my brothers and sisters:

The fourth weekend of Lent is known as Laetare Sunday; we are called to rejoice. Rejoice is a word that seems out of place during the Lent season, a season of reflection and penance. This weekend, we are called to rejoice, and yet the book of Chronicles seems to be a reminder of our failures during Lent, "And the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem." It seems like a contradiction. We are to be joyful since the Easter season is approaching and the new life of Christ is near, and yet we are reminded that we keep adding infidelity to infidelity in our journey of Lent. The book of Chronicles also reminds us that, in the end, God brought the remnant back to Jerusalem to build his temple again. There is a new opportunity for them. The Gospel reminds us that God loved the world so much that he sent his Son to save it. Even though our journey of Lent has not been perfect, we are reminded that God's mercy and compassion provide us with joy and salvation. I invite you in this Fourth weekend of Lent to meditate on these facts that the scriptures propose for us: adding infidelity to infidelity, the promise of a second opportunity, and the salvation provided in Christ. This seems to be the cycle of faith for all of us. We fall short in our commitment to God; God provides a second opportunity for those who persevere and trust in his mercy. But all this is accomplished because God made a commitment to us in his Son Jesus Christ, who gave his life for the salvation of the whole world. Now, I would like us to ask the following questions in prayer. Take some time in prayer and jot down some answers to these questions. What are those infidelities that we are adding up day by day in our Lent?

What are those sins that we keep adding up to our spiritual journey?

Are we ready to go back to God for his mercy and compassion?

Do we know that today is a good day to start over again?

Are we joyful people who recognize the great love of God in Christ?

Finally, a few housekeeping things: I want to thank all of you who participated in our Bible Rally. It was a wonderful sign of our desire to learn about God's Word. We are grateful to Fr. Jose Mario, who dedicated his time and passion to sharing his knowledge of Scripture with us. I hope this event helped you grow in understanding the word of God. I also pray that as we journey in further collaboration, the rotation of the talks also makes you feel comfortable in a different building and understand that we are a "community of Catholics." We need to work hard on building community. On Monday, March 11, at 6 PM, we will continue preparing for the Pilgrimage in the Steps of Saint Paul. This event is open to anyone willing to learn about Saint Paul.

Blessings,

Juan M Camacho

Preparation for our Pilgrimage in the Steps of Saint Paul

The footsteps of St. Paul are a journey of faith and discovery that will take us through some of the places where the apostle preached, taught, and suffered for the sake of the Gospel. This pilgrimage is an opportunity to deepen our relationship with Christ, to learn more about the early Church, and to experience the beauty and diversity of the Mediterranean world.

In preparation for a once-in-a-lifetime experience will continue to meet at St. Richard to explore some of the places we will visit in our Pilgrimage in April.

Remaining dates are:

- Monday, March 11, 6 PM - Corinth, Ephesus, and Patmos
- Thursday, March 21, 6 PM - Crete, Rhodes, and the Meteora Monasteries.

All are welcome.
