Preparation for our Pilgrimage in the Steps of Saint Paul

The footsteps of St. Paul are a journey of faith and discovery that will take us through some of the places where the apostle preached, taught, and suffered for the sake of the Gospel.

We will continue to meet at St. Richard to explore some of the places we will visit in our Pilgrimage in April.

The last date is:

- Thursday, March 21, 6 PM - Crete, Rhodes, and the Meteora Monasteries.

All are welcome.

Human Concerns: SCAN talk

On Monday, March 18th, there will be a guest speaker, Karen Fetherston, Exec Dir of SCAN (Stop Childhood Abuse and Neglect). She will provide information on Sexual Assault and Human Trafficking in children and adults, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm in Haban Hall. There is no fee for this presentation; instead, gift cards are recommended for the victims. Any fast food, restaurant, gas station, grocery store, department store and Dollar Store is accepted. The cards need to be marked with the denomination of your choice. Records are kept for each person.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Fr. Juan's Corner

Grace and Peace to you, my brothers and sisters:

We are getting closer to the end of our Lenten journey, especially to the events of Holy Week, which are the last moments of Jesus' life. Today, we move further in John's Gospel. We read from chapter 12, which is the preparation for the beginning of the Passion narrative. The church invites us this Sunday to get in the mood of the Passion. Next Sunday is Passion Sunday. Then, Holy Week begins with the triumphant entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. However, to comprehend what happens in chapter 12, we must go to the events in chapter 11. Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, which fulfills a twofold purpose in the Gospel of John: people came to believe in Jesus, and the Sanhedrin plotted to kill Jesus.

In chapter 12, Jesus is anointed in Bethany and triumphantly enters Jerusalem. After his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, Jesus predicts his suffering, death, and Resurrection and prepares his disciples to believe in the salvation that his death would accomplish. He uses the metaphor of the grain of wheat; Jesus presents the idea that it is in dying that we give fruit. He encourages his disciples to follow his example. Letting go of life will bear much fruit for the kingdom of God. We farmers know that seeds must die for a plant to grow and bear fruit. Jesus encourages us to die to our ideologies so that the new life in him shines on us. As we come closer to the end of our Lent pilgrimage, I would like to remind you to reflect on the "journey" we began on Ash Wednesday. Is there any behavior/habit/sinfulness that needs to die so that we gain new life in Christ? Is there something I must let go so that I am fully in the Lord?

In today's Gospel, we also hear some words of agony from Jesus. Unlike the Synoptic Gospels, the Gospel of John does not have Jesus praying in agony in the garden before his arrest. In his prayer, Jesus shows his disciples his conviction to follow God's will. He knows he is to die, as we see the plot increasing around him, and from his prayer of anguish and agony, we hear God's reply in affirmation of his commitment. As I reflect on this prayer of Jesus, I recognize that sometimes I may be fearful, but I must have the conviction to follow God's will. In the end, God is in control and will provide the wisdom and light we need in our lives. Take time and pray with Jesus about your fears and anxieties. Trust in the Lord. Trust in God's companionship in your life.

Blessings,

Juan M Camacho
