

Lesson Objectives

The Gospel Weeklies and this teaching plan are designed to help you and your child:

- hear and understand Jesus' teaching in this Sunday's Gospel.
- know how to put the teaching into action.
- grow in understanding the Church's tradition and teachings and how they enrich our lives and help us live as followers of Christ.

Lesson Preparation

Familiarize yourself with and prepare to teach this week's lesson, as follows:

- Review the Sunday Gospel and the Doctrine content. Reflect on connections between the Gospel and Doctrine.
- Read the full Sunday Gospel. Go to pflaum.com/readings. You can find all of this Sunday's Scripture readings at this link.
- Note any special lesson features, such as reflection questions and Faith Words. Plan how you will incorporate these into the lesson.
- Review lesson activities and have on hand materials as needed.

Materials

- Your child's Student Lesson / Gospel Weekly for this week
- Teaching Guide for each child's level
- What the Church Believes and Teaches (WCBT) handbook for your child's level
- Throughout the year, have on hand the following. See materials list in the Teaching Guide for each child's level for lesson-specific lists.
 - large newsprint • wide-tip marker • writing paper • pencil sharpener
 - rulers • glue • stapler • construction paper • large garbage bags
 - chalk • child's scissors • transparent tape • masking tape • erasers

Suggested Pacing Guide

Follow this pacing guide as you and your child work together on this week's lesson.

Share Experiences

- Opening Prayer • Begin this week's session with prayer. Choose a favorite prayer from the prayer pages of WCBT or Our Catholic Family (Twenty-Third Publications) or another prayer book.
- Activity • (Seeds, Promise) Read the opening activity and complete it together. (Good News, Venture, Visions) Have your child complete the opening activity from the Teaching Guide for this week's lesson.

Discover Gospel and Doctrine

- Sunday Gospel • Read aloud the Sunday Gospel text, or assign parts as appropriate. You can also find the Sunday readings at Pflaum.com/readings/.
- Breaking open the Word • Use the reflection questions provided in the lesson to help your child go deeper into the meaning of the Gospel. Add additional discussion questions tailored to your family's and child's circumstances. Consider the following: What does Jesus want us to know? What does this Gospel tell us about Jesus? How can we follow the message of this Gospel in our lives today?
- Connecting Gospel and Doctrine • (Seeds and Promise children) Look at the illustration on page 1. Complete the Gospel-related activity or activities.
- Connecting Gospel and Doctrine • (Good News, Venture, Visions children) Read the Gospel and Doctrine text only. Help your child understand the meaning using the questions provided and by sharing your own insight.

What the Church Believes and Teaches/Catechism

Handbook • Turn to the pages as noted in your child's lesson to read more about this week's doctrine.

Live the Gospel

- Activity • Complete the activity or activities for this week's lesson.
- Family Corner (Seeds, Promise, Good News) or With My Family and Friends (Venture, Visions) • Review this feature as a family. Discuss the question(s) and pray the prayer together.
- Closing Prayer • Choose a favorite prayer from the prayer pages of WCBT or from Our Catholic Family or another prayer book you have chosen, or simply pray in your own words. Consider taking turns with your child leading the closing prayer for the weekly sessions.

Weekly Review

- Ask your child questions based on the lesson to test for comprehension. Ask about the Sunday Gospel and Doctrine. Also review the Faith Word.
- At the end of each unit, you may wish to use the unit test, found at www.pflaumweeklies.com. Go to the Catechists/Teachers menu, select your child's level, then scroll down to click on "Unit Assessments."
