✠ Call to Worship

On this All Saints Sunday, we gather to remember teachers and storytellers who made God's stories come alive for us. We give thanks!

We remember choir members, praise bands, organists, and all the musicians who sang and played your praises. We give thanks!

We remember preachers and lay leaders who led our worship through the years. We give thanks!

We remember parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and siblings who showed us how to hold fast to the faith. We give thanks!

whom we grew our faith and our love for God and neighbor.

WORD & RESPONSE

✠ Scripture | Matthew 25:14-30

Rev. Terry Tippens

Senior Pastor

"Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag, each according to his ability. The he went on his journey. The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.' His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!' The man with two bags of gold also came. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with two bags of gold; see, I have gained two more.' His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant!

You have been faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!' Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. 'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.' His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest. So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. For whoever has will be given more, and they have an abundance. Whoever does not have,

Prayer for the Saints

O God, we remember with thanksgiving those who have loved and served you on earth, who now rest from their labors, especially the saints of Duluth First United Methodist Church whom, with others, we remember this day. Keep us in union with all your saints, and bring us with them to the joyous feast of heaven; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Hear us, O God, as we name these saints before you.

Mike Ramstead

As the names are read, you are invited to stand to honor your loved ones or for all.

A bell will be tolled and a candle lighted for each of the persons listed.

After these names are read, you are invited to call the names of others whom we will remember this day.

A single bell toll and lighted candle will honor all of these persons.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.
So long as we live, they too shall live, we remember them.
For they are now a part of us; we remember them.

Let us pray: God of all ages, you have surrounded us with this great cloud of witnesses, and their presence remains with us always. May we, encouraged by their example and strengthened by their memory, continue in faithful service and love for you, until we are reunited with them in the company of the saints of all times whose song of praise never ends; for with Christ and the Holy Spirit you live and reign forever. Amen.

Please turn in your 2026 Estimate of Giving card now or on Consecration Sunday, which is November 16th. Grow One Step Chart

Many folks have found the Grow One Step chart helpful for their giving. Most of us know it's best for us to put God first and to move toward tithing (giving God the first 10% of our income). But we find it hard to get started. That's where the chart comes in.

Over a decade ago, a young couple I know with two school-aged daughters wanted to tithe. They were giving, but they didn't know what percentage of their income they were giving.

The grid side of the enclosed chart showed them that they were giving 2%. They decided to grow one step by giving 3% the next year. That worked, and they kept going – the following year – 4%, then 5%, etc. After eight years they were tithing, giving God 10%. They are happy to be continuing that practice today as their daughters graduate from college.

National Retired Educators' Day: Sunday, November 2nd

Sunday, November 2nd, is Retired Educators' Day. The Governor issued a proclamation designating this day in November as Retired Educators' Day, calling upon public schools and citizens of the state to observe the occasion and to take the opportunity to honor the retired teachers of the state.

We are so fortunate in this country to offer free public education to all students. However, in order for that opportunity to take form, a cadre of dedicated, educated and willing teachers and administrators must step up to provide the education. Counties across the great state of Georgia have established and maintained this army of dedicated educators for many years. Teaching is a demanding and strenuous profession, and it takes very special people to fill this role.

Please take a few minutes on this day to recognize and appreciate the many hours and years that have been sacrificed by these special people to educate the youth of today so they will become the leaders of tomorrow.

Wednesday Night Food Drive: November 5th

The Wednesday Night Food Drive at Duluth First UMC for the Hands of Christ Duluth Co-Op is our weekly mission project, combined with the many Wednesday evening activities offered at the church. On November 5th we ask you to bring tuna fish. A table for donated items will be located outside of the main entrance to Hinton Hall.

Join us for a delicious dinner and fellowship in Hinton Hall, pick up a to-go dinner for your family, join us for any of our Wednesday evening activities, and drop off food items to help other families in need. We thank you for your support.

"Bundle Up for Buffalo" Annual Fundraiser:

Saturday, November 15th, and Sunday, November 16th

Bundle Up for Buffalo, our annual fundraiser to assist the Seneca Street UMC in Buffalo, NY with their winter heating costs, is on Saturday, November 15th, and Sunday, November 16th. If you like to bake, sew, paint, or craft, this is the chance to offer up your creativity for a very worthy cause. The rest of us get to admire your work and do some Christmas shopping!

Please bring the sale items donations to the Dorothy L. Rainey Fellowship Hall on Friday, November 14th, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. You will be assigned a spot to display your creations, and please bring a small tablecloth if you like. Expect the sale items be crowded together, as our sale has grown in the past years.

Bundle Up for Buffalo begins at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 15th, and closes at 2:00 p.m. It will open on Sunday, November 16th, after the 8:15 a.m. service has ended, will be closed during both 11:00 a.m. services, and will re-open at noon and finish by 1:00. We ask you to please take any of your unsold items home with you, as there is no place to store them at the church once the sale is over, or share them with Sherry Ferguson who has a wonderful place for them at the Holiday Shop for children at Ferguson Elementary School.

All proceeds from Bundle Up for Buffalo go to Seneca Street UMC to assist with their winter heating costs. There is a great need for the heat to be kept on in part of the church where 65+ children arrive after school every day. Heat is on from October to April (and often May) in that part of our country. The after-school program provides children with a healthy snack, warm greetings, and volunteers to help them with their homework until their moms get home from work.

Pastor Dee Finch, Pastor Brian Rotach and Cheryl Bird will be coming from Buffalo. If you would like one of them to speak to your Sunday School class on November 16th, please make your request as soon as possible. You can also join the Forum Sunday School Class that day where one of them will speak. For more information, please contact Beth Intondi at 404-408-1657.
