Human Trafficking Is a Serious Issue: Please Wear Blue Next Sunday, February 8th

Human trafficking is a serious problem worldwide. Often, we think it is not here in the United States, but trafficking is in all 50 states and right here in our own community. Human trafficking comes in many forms. It can be coerced labor such as hotel workers, farm workers or restaurant workers, as well as sexual exploitation. It can affect persons at any age. Sometimes sexual exploitation occurs with a family member or a known trusted person.

STOP
Human Trafficking

If you suspect something, the best idea is to call the hotline to get advice about what to do. Do not confront the people directly as that could put the victim at risk. The hotline phone number is 888-373-7888.

The State of Georgia has passed many laws that make sexual trafficking more difficult for the traffickers, and releasing the victim from prostitution charges, plus helping the victims to rehabilitate.

Many organizations in our community are working to put an end to human trafficking, and to help rescue victims. For example, Street Grace works to protect children and youth from sexual exploitation and Wellspring Living's mission is transforming lives of those at risk or victimized by sexual exploitation.

Anytime there is a big event, whether it be sport related, concerts or conventions, human trafficking increases. It's time to put a STOP to human trafficking. So, when you join us for our worship services next Sunday, February 8th, which is also Super Bowl Sunday, the United Women in Faith are asking you to please wear something BLUE which is the international color of Human Trafficking Awareness.

United Women in Faith Are Raising Funds to Help Put an End to Human Trafficking: Sunday, February 8th

On Sunday, February 8th, the United Women in Faith will be selling chocolate candies and goodies just in time for Valentine's Day. All the proceeds will go to Street Grace, an organization that fight's human trafficking. Founded in 2008, Street Grace been chasing one ambitious vision - ending the sexual exploitation of children. Thanks to the help of their generous partners and supporters, they are making serious progress.

Street Grace works on four areas to make changes:

- PREVENTION to help all of us recognize and stop exploitation before it starts;
- PROTECTION to make survival sustainable;
- PURSUIT to help law enforcement identify predators, protect victims and prevent future crimes;
- POLICY which makes safety the standard, shapes laws, training and systems that protect children long before a crisis begins.

So won't you say YES because change begins with you! Come to the Dorothy L. Rainey Fellowship Hall on Sunday, February 8th, buy chocolates, and help put an end to human trafficking! Brooke Ruffin from Street Grace will be in the Fellowship Hall to answer any questions. For additional information about Street Grace, please visit their website at www.streetgrace.org.

Library Book Club to Discuss "James" by Percival Everett:

Monday, February 9th

The Library Book Club will meet on Monday, February 9th, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in room F145 (located on the 1st floor of the Sheldon Family Life Center) to discuss the book James by Percival Everett with a discussion led by Amy Burk. James, a brilliant, action-packed reimagining of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, both harrowing and darkly humorous, is told from the enslaved Jim's point of view.

When Jim overhears that he is about to be sold to a man in New Orleans, separated from his wife and daughter forever, he runs away until he can formulate a plan. Meanwhile, Huck has faked his own death to escape his violent father. As all readers of American literature know, thus begins the dangerous and transcendent journey by raft down the Mississippi River toward the elusive and unreliable promise of the Free States and beyond.

Brimming with the electrifying humor and lacerating observations that have made author Percival Everett a literary icon, this brilliant and tender novel radically illuminates Jim's agency, intelligence, and compassion as never before.
