“The Lord’s Prayer” - week 5

Scripture: Matthew 6:5-12, 14-15 (Common English Bible)

⁵ "When you pray, don't be like hypocrites. They love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners so that people will see them. I assure you, that's the only reward they'll get. ⁶ But when you pray, go to your room, shut the door, and pray to your Father who is present in that secret place. Your Father who sees what you do in secret will reward you.

⁷ "When you pray, don't pour out a flood of empty words, as the Gentiles do. They think that by saying many words they'll be heard. ⁸ Don't be like them, because your Father knows what you need before you ask. ⁹ Pray like this: Our Father who is in heaven, uphold the holiness of your name. ¹⁰ Bring in your kingdom so that your will is done on earth as it's done in heaven. ¹¹ Give us the bread we need for today.

¹² Forgive us for the ways we have wronged you, just as we also forgive those who have wronged us.

¹⁴ “If you forgive others their sins, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵ But if you don’t forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your sins.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

Library Book Club to Discuss "James" by Percival Everett:

Monday, February 9th

The Library Book Club will meet on Monday, February 9th, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in room F145 (located on the 1st floor of the Sheldon Family Life Center) to discuss the book James by Percival Everett with a discussion led by Amy Burk. James, a brilliant, action-packed reimagining of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, both harrowing and darkly humorous, is told from the enslaved Jim's point of view.

When Jim overhears that he is about to be sold to a man in New Orleans, separated from his wife and daughter forever, he runs away until he can formulate a plan. Meanwhile, Huck has faked his own death to escape his violent father. As all readers of American literature know, thus begins the dangerous and transcendent journey by raft down the Mississippi River toward the elusive and unreliable promise of the Free States and beyond.

Brimming with the electrifying humor and lacerating observations that have made author Percival Everett a literary icon, this brilliant and tender novel radically illuminates Jim's agency, intelligence, and compassion as never before.

Human Trafficking Awareness Day: Sunday, February 8th

Human Trafficking Is a Serious Issue

Human trafficking is a serious problem worldwide. Often, we think it is not here in the United States, but trafficking is in all 50 states and right here in our own community. Human trafficking comes in many forms. It can be coerced labor such as hotel workers, farm workers or restaurant workers, as well as sexual exploitation. It can affect persons at any age. Sometimes sexual exploitation occurs with a family member or a known trusted person.

If you suspect something, the best idea is to call the hotline to get advice about what to do. Do not confront the people directly as that could put the victim at risk. The hotline phone number is 888-373-7888.

The State of Georgia has passed many laws that make sexual trafficking more difficult for the traffickers, and releasing the victim from prostitution charges, plus helping the victims to rehabilitate.

Many organizations in our community are working to put an end to human trafficking, and to help rescue victims. For example, Street Grace works to protect children and youth from sexual exploitation and Wellspring Living's mission is transforming lives of those at risk or victimized by sexual exploitation.

Anytime there is a big event, whether it be sport related, concerts or conventions, human trafficking increases. It's time to put a STOP to human trafficking. Today, which is also Super Bowl Sunday, the United Women in Faith have asked people to please wear BLUE which is the international color of Human Trafficking Awareness.

United Women in Faith Are Raising Funds to Help Put an End to Human Trafficking: Today, February 8th

Today the United Women in Faith will be selling chocolate candies and goodies just in time for Valentine's Day. All the proceeds will go to Street Grace, an organization that fights human trafficking. Founded in 2008, Street Grace has been chasing one ambitious vision - ending the sexual exploitation of children. Thanks to the help of their generous partners and supporters, they are making serious progress.

Street Grace works on four areas to make changes:

- PREVENTION to help all of us recognize and stop exploitation before it starts;
- PROTECTION to make survival sustainable;
- PURSUIT to help law enforcement identify predators, protect victims and prevent future crimes;
- POLICY which makes safety the standard, shapes laws, training and systems that protect children long before a crisis begins.

So won't you say YES because change begins with you! Come to the Dorothy L. Rainey Fellowship Hall today, buy chocolates, and help put an end to human trafficking! Brooke Ruffin from Street Grace will be in the Fellowship Hall to answer any questions. For additional information about Street Grace, please visit their website at www.streetgrace.org.

Human Trafficking Awareness Day: Sunday, February 8th

Human Trafficking "Did You Know?"

Today - Sunday, February 8th - is Human Trafficking Awareness Day. Did you know that:

- The United States State Department says that there are 27.6 million victims of human trafficking worldwide at any given time.
- Human trafficking is the exploitation of a person's labor by coercion, power or control. Coercion can be done through drugs and/or a love belonging issue.
- If you suspect human trafficking, the best idea is to call the hotline at 888-373-7888 to get advice about what to do. Do not confront the people directly as that could put the victim in more risk.
- In 27 states children can be charged as prostitutes.

The State of Georgia is NOT one of them. In 19 states sexual trafficking is not considered child abuse, So the victim is criminalized.

- 40% of human traffickers use black women and girls because they think they will get less jail time if the victim is black.
- Many victims of human trafficking deal with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), nightmares and the shame blanket that weighs them down. Most victims say the issue that causes them the most stress is sexual trauma before the age of 13. Victims need to be rewired as their body is the scene of the crime.

How can we help? We need to work inward first and deal with our biases. We need to be intentional and educate ourselves and others about human trafficking. We need to have redemptive vision. We need to share our stories. Secrecy is what enables trafficking.
