Duluth First UMC Welcomes Chef Kenny Lewis to Our Staff

Duluth First United Methodist Church is happy to welcome Kenneth "Chef Kenny" Lewis to our staff as Director of Food Services.

Chef Kenny is originally from Miami, Florida, and was raised in Lithonia Georgia. He found his love of culinary in his High School home economics class and at a part-time job at a local pizzeria. After High School he attended Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina, and Jacksonville State University in Jacksonville, Alabama.

Chef Kenny can vividly remember calling his grandmother to ask for specific recipes to feed his dorm roommates because the school cafeteria was closed. To pay for school he worked in the cafeteria and the catering department, honing the skills that made him the chef he is today.

After college he continued working in the culinary field with employment at high-end restaurants and private schools cafeterias. While employed at Woodward Academy, a private school located in East Point, Georgia, he earned the title Chef by developing his own recipes and menus.

Chef Kenny's skills led to work in the non-profit sector in churches. With the help and guidance of Pastor Craig Oliver, Jr., of Elizabeth Baptist Church, he was able to operate and run a successful non-profit food truck. Currently he owns and operates his own food service and catering business, Your Daily Bread Co., a non-profit dedicated to providing food and beverage to men, women and children and disadvantaged communities in need of nourishment.

Some ways to celebrate may include educating yourself on black history or the various African American Methodist movements. You might also support local African American businesses/charities or participate in local advocacy. You can also explore black literature, film and music that convey the unique voices and experiences of the culture.

Thank You from

“Bundle Up for Buffalo 2025”

To the good people of Duluth First United Methodist Church,

Each year as I attempt to write this letter to you, I am struck at how my words fail to convey my feeling of gratefulness. Nevertheless, I will try again.

I visited Buffalo early in December and experienced the bitter below-zero-windchill of this city. For those who can rent a portion of a house, the heat is often not adequate. For those living in cars, the heat depends on the ability to pay for gasoline. For those on the street, Seneca Street United Methodist Church provides a place where one can walk into a Christ-centered place, get warm, get fed, and even take a shower. YOU make that happen. Through your generous giving during and after the Bundle Up for Buffalo fundraiser this past November, some of the poorest in our country can stretch out on a pew and get warm for a while. YOU fulfill Christ’s directive through your humility and generous spirit.

Almost seventy children are coming to Seneca Street UMC every day after school. Volunteers are at the church ready with snacks and ready to help with homework. Because moms may not get home until later, a warm meal is provided so children are not hungry at night. Even if the power goes out in the Seneca-Babcock neighborhood of South Buffalo, a generator will kick on now. What a blessing is this heat you provided!

I am already starting to plan for Bundle Up for Buffalo 2026. Thank you for your selfless generosity, your ongoing prayers, and your many gifts. God bless you and yours as you continue to serve Him throughout the upcoming year.

Many thanks for all of your support!
Beth Intondi

Operation Christmas Child Update

Our church congregation has completed the 2025 Operation Christmas Child campaign. Our contribution was 104 shoeboxes that includes 25 online shoeboxes and 79 individually prepared shoeboxes.

If you registered your shoebox, you should have received an e-mail indicating the country your shoebox was delivered to. If not, you can go to Samaritan’s Purse website - www.samaritanaspurse.org - to find the location of your shoebox by clicking on Build a Shoebox Online, going to Pack a Shoebox in the page header, and click on Label Options in the drop-down menu. In the Track Labels field you can enter your e-mail address or label code number.

The shoeboxes filled by the Christian Beginnings Kindergarten students were delivered to the Republic of the Congo and a hard to reach area.

Please let Charlie Doerlich know the location of your shoebox so that he can add it to the Operation Christmas Child map on the Missions Ministry bulletin board located on the 1st floor of the Sheldon Family Life Center. The map reflects our church’s shoebox delivery locations for over the past ten years.

Thank you so much for your support of this important mission for children around the world. For more information or if you have any questions, please contact Charlie Doerlich by e-mail at chaz3d@gmail.com or call 678-662-2115.

United Women in Faith Are Raising Funds

Sunday, February 8th

On Sunday, February 8th, the United Women in Faith will be selling chocolate candies and goodies just in time for Valentine's Day. All the proceeds will go to Street Grace, an organization that fights human trafficking. Founded in 2008, Street Grace been chasing one ambitious vision - ending the sexual exploitation of children. Thanks to the help of their generous partners and supporters, they are making serious progress.

Street Grace works on four areas to make changes:

- PREVENTION to help all of us recognize and stop exploitation before it starts;
- PROTECTION to make survival sustainable;
- PURSUIT to help law enforcement identify predators, protect victims and prevent future crimes;
- POLICY which makes safety the standard, shapes laws, training and systems that protect children long before a crisis begins.

So won't you say YES because change begins with you! Come to the Dorothy L. Rainey Fellowship Hall on Sunday, February 8th, buy chocolates, and help put an end to human trafficking! For additional information about Street Grace, please visit their website at www.streetgrace.org.

Human Trafficking Awareness Day Is
Sunday, February 8th:
Please Wear Something Blue to Church

Human trafficking is a serious problem worldwide. Often, we think it is not here in the United States, but trafficking is in all 50 states and right here in our own community. Human trafficking comes in many forms. It can be coerced labor such as hotel workers, farm workers or restaurant workers, as well as sexual exploitation. It can affect persons at any age. Sometimes sexual exploitation occurs with a family member or a known trusted person.

If you suspect something, the best idea is to call the hotline to get advice about what to do. Do not confront the people directly as that could put the victim at risk. The hotline phone number is 888-373-7888.

The State of Georgia has passed many laws that make sexual trafficking more difficult for the traffickers, and releasing the victim from prostitution charges, plus helping the victims to rehabilitate.

Many organizations in our community are working to put an end to human trafficking, and to help rescue victims. For example, Street Grace works to protect children and youth from sexual exploitation and Wellspring Living's mission is transforming lives of those at risk or victimized by sexual exploitation.

Anytime there is a big event, whether it be sport related, concerts or conventions, human trafficking increases. It's time to put a STOP to human trafficking. So, on Super Bowl Sunday, February 8th, the United Women in Faith are asking you to please wear something BLUE which is the international color of Human Trafficking Awareness.

Human Trafficking Awareness Day: Sunday, February 8th

Human Trafficking “Did You Know?”

You are encouraged to wear blue on Sunday, February 8th, as it is the international color of Human Trafficking Awareness. Did you know that:

- The United States State Department says that there are 27.6 million victims of human trafficking worldwide at any given time.
- Human trafficking is the exploitation of a person's labor by coercion, power or control. Coercion can be done through drugs and/or a love belonging issue.
- If you suspect human trafficking, the best idea is to call the hotline at 888-373-7888 to get advice about what to do. Do not confront the people directly as that could put the victim in more risk.
- In 27 states children can be charged as prostitutes. The State of Georgia is NOT one of them. In 19 states sexual trafficking is not considered child abuse, So the victim is criminalized.
- 40% of human traffickers use black women and girls because they think they will get less jail time if the victim is black.
- Many victims of human trafficking deal with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), nightmares and the shame blanket that weighs them down. Most victims say the issue that causes them the most stress is sexual trauma before the age of 13. Victims need to be rewired as their body is the scene of the crime.

How can we help? We need to work inward first and deal with our biases. We need to be intentional and educate ourselves and others about human trafficking. We need to have redemptive vision. We need to share our stories. Secrecy is what enables trafficking.

STOP

Human Trafficking

"Taste and See" Lenten Study: Begins Sunday, February 22nd

Everyone is invited to participate in a Lenten study, based on the book Taste and See by Margaret Feinberg, beginning Sunday, February 22nd. The study, led by Rev. Dr. AnnaKate Rawles, will meet on Sundays, February 22nd through March 29th, from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. in room F145, located on the 1st floor of the Sheldon Family Life Center.

Taste and See will be a different type of Lenten study – it will be one about feasting and "discovering God among butchers, bakers, and fresh food makers." We will discuss where we can find God and that we are all invited to "Taste and See" that God is good. We will also sample some of the dishes that the author discusses!

The cost of the class is $20 is per person to cover the cost of the book and food samples. Childcare will be available by request. To register and for more information, please contact Rev. Dr. AnnaKate Rawles by e-mail at arawles@duluthmc.org, or call 770-476-3776, ext. 128.

Greeters Needed for 8:30 and 11:00 Worship Services

People attend churches where they feel like they are warmly received and welcomed, and we want to be sure every visitor at Duluth First United Methodist Church experiences that!

Greeters are needed for the 8:30 and 11:00 worship services. Please sign up to volunteer and be at the new Welcome Center one service and one Sunday each month to help us welcome those who have walked through our doors. It's simple and a wonderful way to serve our church!

To sign up and/or get more information, please contact Rev. Dr. AnnaKate Rawles by e-mail at arawles@duluthmc.org or call 770-476-3776, ext. 128.

Ancient Christianities - The First Five Hundred Years: A New Study Group Begins on February 24th and 25th

Join us for a new small group class opportunity that will discuss the first five hundred years of Christianity. Beginning Tuesday, February 24th, and Wednesday, February 25th, this class will meet twice each week for 20 weeks and participants may attend either class. Classes will be held on:

- Tuesdays from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.
- Wednesdays from 5:45 to 7:15 p.m.

The subject matter will be based on Ancient Christianities: The First Five Hundred Years, a series of 20 lectures by Paula Fredriksen, Professor of Scripture Emerita at Boston University and Professor Emerita of Comparative Religion at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Dr. Fredriksen, and author of numerous books and a widely sought-after speaker, is a worldwide recognized scholar of early Christianity. A former Catholic, Fredriksen converted to Judaism several years ago.

The class, led by Pete Fleming, will consist of 20 fifty-minute lectures by Dr. Fredriksen which will follow her latest book. Participants are not required to purchase the book, but they may wish to. Classes will be augmented with weekly summaries of the material plus optional additional readings and bibliographies.

If you would like to participate in this new study or have questions, please contact Pete Fleming by e-mail at lfleming3832@att.net or Rev. Dr. AnnaKate Rawles by e-mail at arawles@duluthmc.org. Please let them know which day of the week you will most likely be attending the class so that classroom space can be planned for.

Library Book Club to Discuss “James” by Percival Everett: Monday, February 9th

The Library Book Club will meet on Monday, February 9th, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in room F145 (located on the 1st floor of the Sheldon Family Life Center) to discuss the book James by Percival Everett with a discussion led by Amy Burk. James, a brilliant, action-packed reimagining of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, both harrowing and darkly humorous, is told from the enslaved Jim’s point of view.

When Jim overhears that he is about to be sold to a man in New Orleans, separated from his wife and daughter forever, he runs away until he can formulate a plan. Meanwhile, Huck has faked his own death to escape his violent father. As all readers of American literature know, thus begins the dangerous and transcendent journey by raft down the Mississippi River toward the elusive and unreliable promise of the Free States and beyond.

Brimming with the electrifying humor and lacerating observations that have made author Percival Everett a literary icon, this brilliant and tender novel radically illuminates Jim’s agency, intelligence, and compassion as never before.

New Titles in Our Church Library for Winter Reading

Cozy up with a good book this winter from The Louise McDaniel Memorial Church Library, located on the 2nd floor of the Sheldon Family Life Center, where you can find your next great read!

The Women of the Bible Speak: The Wisdom of 16 Women and Their Lessons for Today by Shannon Bream (Christian non-fiction, a United Women of Faith selection). Fox News Channel’s Shannon Bream opens up the lives of sixteen of Biblical women, including Deborah, Miriam, and Mary Magdalene, arranging them into pairs and contrasting their journeys. In pairing their stories, Shannon helps us reflect not only on the meaning of each individual’s life, but on how they relate to each other and to us.

Sacred Self-Care: Daily Practices for Nurturing our Whole Selves by Chanequa Walker-Barnes (Christian non-fiction). This 49-day interactive devotional from clinical psychologist and theologian Dr. Chanequa Walker-Barnes shows how to begin caring for your spiritual self in only forty-nine days. Each day includes short, accessible, and practical prompts, practices, scripture passages, hymns, and prayers that help you nurture your spirit and offer insight and guidance on: practicing self-compassion; setting boundaries; accessing priorities and establishing routines that reflect your values; understanding why self-care is subversive and reparative in social justice; and more.

Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman (fiction). “Smart, warm, uplifting, the story of an out-of-the-ordinary heroine whose deadpan weirdness and unconscious wit make for an irresistible journey as she realizes the only way to survive is to open her heart. Meet Eleanor Oliphant: she struggles with appropriate social skills and tends to say exactly what she’s thinking. Add in her unusual appearance and inability to have a fashionable wardrobe, and you have someone different until...Enter Raymond, the bumbling and deeply unhygienic IT guy from her office. Together, they make a great pair.

Thank You from the Worship Committee

A short note to say a grateful Thank You to all of you who assisted the Worship Committee to “ungreen” the Sanctuary and Hinton Hall on Sunday, January 4th. Your assistance made quick and orderly completion of the task. We look forward to including the congregation in these activities in the future.

Thank You from the Students at Ferguson Elementary School

Thank you for your generous support of Ferguson Elementary School’s annual Holiday Store, held on December 18, 2025. Our students were thrilled to shop for their family and friends, selecting gifts that were then wrapped with care at our wrapping station.

This special event was made possible through the kindness of our community. Every item in the Holiday Store was donated, and we are especially grateful to Duluth First United Methodist Church for their tremendous support. Your generosity brought joy to our students and helped make the holiday season a little brighter for them. A heartfelt thank you to church members Teri Adkins, Sara Lee, Elaine Norton, Sally Southerland, and Betty Worthington for volunteering their time at the wrapping station.

We are now accepting donations items for the 2026 Holiday Store. They may be given to Sherry Ferguson or Sally Southerland. If you have any questions, please contact Sherry at 770-490-7168 or by e-mail at slf28@bellsouth.net. Thank you again for your continued support!

Boy Scout Trent Allen’s Eagle Project

Dear members of Duluth First United Methodist Church,

My name is Trent Allen and I am a Boy Scout with Troop 419 in Duluth, GA. I am currently working towards my Eagle Scout rank.

For my Eagle Project, I will be refurbishing the outdoor chapel, located by the Scout Hut at Duluth First United Methodist Church. This will include dismantling the top wooden part of the podium and rebuilding the exterior of it with trex wood to make it strong and useful for many years to come. I will also be laying mulch down.

If you would like to help me raise funds for my Eagle Project, please scan the QR code located to the right with your smartphone or tablet and that will take you to my GoFundMe fundraising page. Thank you for your support.

Eagle Scout candidate Trent Allen of Troop 419.

Set Up Recurring Online Giving to the Church

Recurring giving is easy to set up just by going to the ONLINE GIVING page on our website – duluthumc.org, or if you are watching church online, click on the link that will take you to that page.

Recurring gifts are helpful to both you and the church. You won't have to remember to write your check, and it works great with your budget as it is a consistent amount each time. The church benefits especially during slower months when giving is down and we can count on your gifts to continue our ministries and missions without interruption.

Please consider setting up recurring giving. If you need assistance, please contact Jan Jones, Financial Assistant, by e-mail at jjones@duluthumc.org or call 770 476-3776, ext. 113.
