

Count and Choose

UNIT VERSE
 Tell everyone about Jesus.
 — MATTHEW 28:19-20

Jesus told a rich young man that he should sell all his things and follow Him. Jesus wanted the man to make the right choice and love God more than money. Count the pennies in each group. Draw a line from the pennies to the correct number.

BIBLE STUDIES For LIFE

LEVEL OF BIBLICAL LEARNING

God allows me to make right and wrong choices.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Parents, today your child heard about the rich young ruler. This young man wanted to follow God but did not want to give up his possessions, which was a wrong choice. God wants people to make right choices.

LIVE IT OUT

Give your preschooler practice making choices. Some choices do not matter, but some are important. When your child makes a wrong choice, talk about what right choice he could make next time. Explain that God wants people to make right choices.

THE RICH YOUNG RULER

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 19:16-26; Luke 18:18-23

WEEKLY VERSE: Do what is right. 2 Corinthians 13:7

LIFE POINT: God wants people to make right choices.

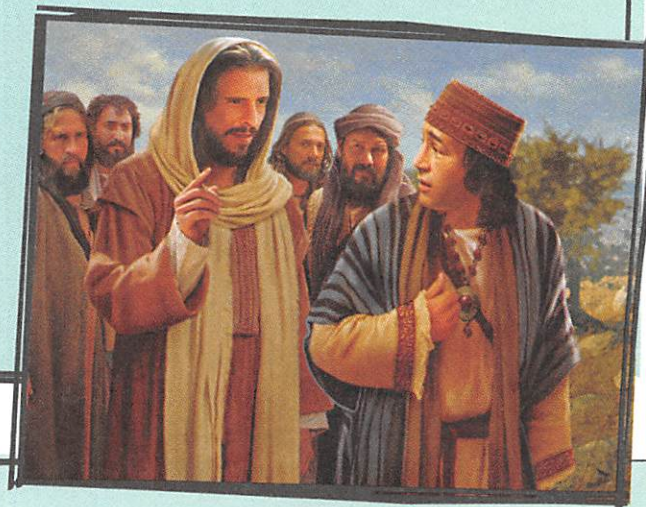

One day a young man ran up to Jesus and asked Him a question. He wanted to know what he should do to obey God.

Jesus told the man, "You know the commandments. Do not take things that belong to someone else. Tell the truth. Love and obey your mother and father."

The young man said, "I have obeyed the commandments since I was a boy."

Jesus told him, "You need to do one more thing. Sell what you have and give the money to the people who do not have any money. Then follow Me."

The man became sad. He had many things. He sadly walked away. Jesus told the disciples, "It is hard for people to do what God wants them to do. But God will help people make right choices."
