CALL TO WORSHIP – Pastor Michelle / Congregation

God, of power and majesty, Who chose to enter this world in humble circumstances and flesh and blood, draw near to us today.

Speak to us today.

You call us to serve, to care for the hurting, and to advocate for those without power, voice or means.

Yet, like James and John, we are tempted by seats of power; by comfort, by fame and recognition and by wealth.

Who do we serve, in the end? Where are our priorities? Are they aligned with Your Kingdom or something else?

Speak to us God and may Your Holy Spirit challenge us that we might reflect Your light and love in this world. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING – Mark 10:35-45 – Sandy Gales

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Appoint us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized you will be baptized, but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to appoint, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; instead, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve and to give his life a ransom for many."
