Annie Armstrong (1850-1938) spoke up for missions and missionaries in ways no one ever had. She championed missions support among Southern Baptist churches and cast a grand vision for their growing involvement in praying, giving and going. Since 1895, what is now called the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering has fueled Southern Baptists' mission work in the U.S., Canada and their territories. In that time, churches and individuals have given more than $2 billion dollars to help make Jesus known to every man, woman, boy and girl in North America.
