UPCOMING SENIOR HIGH SERIES | SUNDAYS | 9:00A

Does doctrine really matter for daily life? Yes! Beginning TODAY, high school students will embark on a twenty-week journey discovering Christian doctrines that will help them live "in a manner worthy of the Lord". Understanding Scripture in context and striving toward correct application will lay tracks for appreciating the depth and breadth of God's Word. From attending school to interacting with siblings to navigating part-time jobs, this study is a must for those serious about living the God-centered, Bible-focused, and Gospel-centered life. Parents are asked to enable youth ministry notifications on the app to receive weekly updates on the material and extending the lesson at home.

UPCOMING MIDWEEK YOUTH SERIES | WEDS | 6:30P

How do I interact with my Muslim peer? What about the LDS representative who knocks on my door? How about my atheist friend at work? Increasingly finding themselves in these situations, students must be equipped to winsomely defend the faith and point lost souls to Christ. Over the course of this school year, junior and senior high students will spend midweek gatherings learning basic apologetic and evangelistic skills. Don't miss this opportunity to mature as salt and light. See you Wednesdays, starting August 20.
