

Session Five: Interpretation, Pt. 1

1. Revisiting Occasion, Purpose, Sectioning, and Summary Statements

- 1.1. Which verse supplies the occasion of Jude's letter?
- 1.2. Which verse most succinctly highlights Jude's purpose?
- 1.3. Share your group's sectioning and summary statements with the class.

2. Interpretation

2.1. The observation phase of an inductive study allowed us to learn _____ the text says. Turning our attention to interpretation, we want to focus on what the text _____.

2.2. The discipline of interpretation involves dependence upon one of the works of the Holy Spirit: _____.

2.3. To arrive at an accurate meaning/interpretation, there are some helpful _____ to follow.

2.3.1. Guideline #1: _____
Yourself in God's Word.

2.3.2. Guideline #2: _____
Concentrically.

2.3.3. Guideline #3: _____ to Scripture's Own Interpretation.

2.3.4. Guideline #4: _____ Interpretational Findings with _____ Sources.

2.3.4.1. We do not use commentary to _____ our interpretation, but rather to check and _____ it.

2.3.4.2. "Why should we use commentaries or other reference works? Certainly the purpose isn't so they'll do all the work for us or to deny the serious Bible student the pleasure of discovering the meaning of the text on his or her own. However, as we've stressed throughout this book, the Bible is an ancient, literarily diverse book communicating divinely inspired truth. Breaking this down according to the hermeneutical triad—history, literature, and theology—we find that digging into the depths of Scripture often requires access to information not readily available or naturally known. This information may pertain to any number of specialized interests, including historical backgrounds, original-language grammar and syntax, ancient literary form, and theological motifs. By consulting commentaries and related resources, students have access to technical information they might not otherwise know. The primary reason we use commentaries is not to have others tell us what the Bible means. Rather, it's to provide _____ and _____ that better equips us to make our own decisions about what the Bible says."<sup>1</sup>

3. Practicing Interpretation

3.1. The overarching prompt for each group: In light of Jude's occasion and purpose, verse(s) _____ means _____.

3.1.1. "Enjoy swimming in the ocean, but don't neglect the view from the beach."

3.1.2. Keep an eye toward _____.

3.2. When finished, _____ your sectional summary statements and/or overall summary statement to better reflect your interpretational findings.

JUDE (English Standard Version)

<sup>1</sup> Richard Alan Fuhr Jr. and Andreas J. Köstenberger, Inductive Bible Study: Observation, Interpretation, and Application through the Lenses of History, Literature, and Theology (Nashville, TN: B&H Academic, 2016), 384.

Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, to those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ: May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you. Beloved, although I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints. For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day—just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones. But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, “The Lord rebuke you.” But these people blaspheme all that they do not understand, and they are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively. Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam's error and perished in Korah's rebellion. These are hidden reefs at your love feasts, as they feast with you without fear, shepherds feeding themselves; waterless clouds, swept along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever. It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his holy ones, to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own sinful desires; they are loud-mouthed boasters, showing favoritism to gain advantage. But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. They said to you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions.” It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh. Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.
