

How are Materials Chosen for the Library?

Materials selected for the Library, whether purchased or donated, must fit the Nampa College Church Library Book Selection Policy (copy available in the Church Library). Once materials are donated, they become the property of the Library to be used as the Library Book Selection Committee deems appropriate. Recommendations for purchases are welcome from church attendees and staff.