

Who May Check Out Materials?

Anyone may check out materials if they attend Nampa College Church or its activities and have completed a Library application form available in the Church Library.