CONVERSATION GUIDE

BOTTOM LINE

Remember what God has done for you.

SCRIPTURE

He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19 NLT).

GOAL OF SMALL GROUP

To help students make a habit of remembering what God has done for them.

THINK ABOUT THIS

Leaders—you may have students in your group who don't think God has done anything for them. Based on what you know about those students, help them recognize the things, experiences, and relationships that God has given them.

Create meaningful conversation. Adjust the questions as needed, and don't feel like you need to answer all of them.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. If your last words were to become famous, what would you want them to be?
2. Why is it so easy to forget what God has done for us in the past?
3. What experiences or situations have led you to get frustrated with God in the past?
4. In Luke 22:19, Jesus talks about remembering Him. How can remembering who Jesus is and what He's done impact your perspective when things are good or bad?
5. What are some things God has done for you or others around you that you can hold on to when things aren't going well?
6. How can you remind yourself of those things the next time you're tempted to question God's goodness?

TRY THIS

Leaders—sometime during this 5-week series, plan a night for your small group to get together, share a meal, and celebrate all God has done for your group over the past year. If planning and logistics aren't your skill set, ask one of your students to help you coordinate a night!

Be on the lookout for more details from your ministry leader about this, including questions to talk about and inexpensive ways to feed your group.
