Ever wondered why people around us aren't interested in God? Maybe we've never given them a reason to be. However, if we're real with people they will be real with us. We can make Jesus relevant and real in the lives of others, not by arguing them into the kingdom, but by showing them what a Christ-follower looks like— someone who engages with the community, who thoughtfully inquires about sensitive, ultimate issues, and who encourages others by our loving presence. There is an art to loving your neighbor as yourself.
