Today we follow Jesus' footsteps into Jerusalem beginning his final week of life. Color, like music, plays an important role in the life of God's worshipping people. Purple was an expensive color in the world Jesus lived reserved only for royalty. Jesus, king of the Jews, wore a purple robe only once while he hung on the cross. You will have to look harder for the veiled crown of thorns representing what is to come later in the week. Yet Jesus was not alone. The three white candles represent Father, Son and Holy Spirit working together through the difficulty of Holy Week.
