Daily Devotions & Scriptures

Monday, July 14 Read Psalm 19

This psalm of praise extols the strengths and virtues of God. Why is this important for us when it comes to praying to Him? All of this praise precedes any prayer request. Look closely at v.14. Why is it an important way to frame our own prayers?

Tuesday July 15 Read Mark 11:25-26

What does this passage suggest is the prerequisite for forgiveness? Why? How does (or should) this reciprocity affect everything we pray for? Another way to look at it is to ask, what does God expect from us when we come before Him in prayer?

Wednesday, July 16 Read Ephesians 6:18-20

What are some of the characteristics of faithful prayer that Paul is suggesting here? What does it mean to “pray in the Spirit (v.18)? Look up Luke 12:12 and Romans 8:15-17 for some possible guidance here.

Thursday, July 17 Read Matthew 7:7-8

What is the difference between asking and seeking and knocking in terms of what you pray for and the ways you pray? Are we called to be persistent because God has trouble hearing us or in order to increase our own boldness, dependence and attentiveness? If the latter, how does that work?

Friday, July 18 Read 1 John 5:14-15

Is our boldness before God to be seen as a ‘blank check’ to ask for a receive anything we want? Are there qualifiers here and if so, what are they (hint: look closely at the second half of v.14)? Why is this important?

Saturday, July 19 Read Psalm 27

Read this psalm as your prayer. Take it slowly and savor its boldness, confidence and imagery. Why can v. 4 be considered the lynch pin around which this whole psalm revolves? Look at the bold declaration in vv.13-14. Can you make the same statement? Discuss this with God in prayer today.
