"Entire Prayer" is a process in which we Pause, Rejoice, Ask and Yield as God works to reshape us.

1. We can rejoice in our prayers only when we accept the reality of the of God.

"If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!" -Matthew 7:11

2. Rejoicing in God occurs when we... A...willfully our souls.

"Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name!" - Hebrews 13:15

B...pray a daily "Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits!" -Psalm 103:1-2

C...worship with "Counting on God's Rule to prevail, I take heart and gain strength. I run like a deer. I feel like I'm king of the mountain! (For congregational use, with a full orchestra.)" Habakkuk 3:19

D...worship with "May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." -Romans 15:5-6

E...make connecting with God and .

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." -Matthew 6:9-10

Daily Devotions & Scriptures

Monday, July 7 Read Psalm 118

This is a song of celebration and triumph. Take a moment and list the actions, aspects and qualities of God that inspire this celebration. Have you experienced these characteristics or similar triumphs with God? If so, how do they figure in your prayer life and attitude?

Tuesday July 8 Read Habakkuk 3:17-18

Far too many people anchor their faith in the emotions of the moment or on a (false) assurance that everything will go their way and then they come crashing down when challenges come. In what do you truly place your faith and reliance? How is Habakkuk able to rejoice in the face of loss and failure? Can you say the same? Why or why not?

Wednesday, July 9 Read Luke 15:11-32

We are all familiar with the Parable of the Prodigal, but take a moment to imagine yourself as the younger, failed brother. What do you feel when you are welcomed home with open arms? How did you understand the Father while you were on your way home and how do you see Him after he throws a party? How does this story affect how you approach God in prayer? Why?

Thursday, July 10 Read Matthew 7:7-11

Often our picture of God is of a stern (maybe even angry) parent. Sometimes that image hinders us from approaching Him as we are all too aware of our sin and shortcomings. How does Jesus aim to alter that view in this passage? How does v.11 sum up what it means to be able to come confidently to God?

Friday, July 11 Read 1 Corinthians 5:6-8

Paul is referencing sexual immorality in the Corinthians church but the metaphor of the yeast is apt in all aspects of cultivating our spiritual life. What we add to our lives impacts how we live, view the world and respond to others. What “old yeasts” contribute to negativity (see Tuesday’s reading!) to how you live? How can rejoicing in prayer clear the old yeast out and bring a new perspective?

Saturday, July 12 Read Psalm 95:1-7

Like Psalm 118 from Monday, this song also reveals in God’s activity and faithfulness. What does it mean for you to “sing to the Lord...a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation (vv.1-2)?” How does your discipleship impact and shape your joy in life? Is that joy evident to the people around you?
