Daily Devotions & Scriptures

Monday, Oct. 26 Read Psalm 84
Read this psalm through several times, savoring its promises and reflecting on the images it portrays. How would you sum up its message to someone who had not read it? What is God saying to you specifically in this psalm of praise and trust?

Tuesday Oct. 27 Read Isaiah 6:1-8
There are three things to note in this passage: 1.) God's glory and power are more than we can comprehend; 2.) We are not fit to be in God's presence much less capable of doing His Will and 3.) God (not us) prepares us and makes us worthy for the tasks He gives us. How do the excuses we use to avoid serving God stand up in light of this passage? What are your reasons (or excuses)?

Wednesday, Oct. 28 Read John 13:1-17
Why did Jesus wash his disciples' feet? Why did Peter protest and what did Jesus mean when he said "unless I wash you, you have no share with me? (v.8)?" Since the custom of washing feet is no longer practiced, how does this passage apply to modern Christians? To modern churches? How does this passage describe and direct the attitudes, ministries and programs of the Christian church?

Thursday, Oct. 29 Read Philippians 2:1-11
How do verses 1-4 sum up what it means to "have the same mind in you that was in Christ Jesus?" In what ways is our church good about fulfilling this commandment and in what ways do we need to work a little harder? Be as specific as possible. Look up John 15:12 and 1 Corinthians 13:1-7. How should our Christian love be made evident?

Friday, Oct. 30 Read Matthew 24:42-51
If we, as Christians, are called to live ready, what should we be ready for? What would it look like to be ready and properly prepared and how would we know if we were? Look back over the readings from this week and see if there are any guidelines to be found there. If Jesus came right now, are you ready? Why or why not?

Saturday, Oct. 31 Read 1 Peter 4:10-11
We are called to be stewards (someone who holds and maintains something for another, rightful owner) of everything in our lives, not just our material goods but also our words and actions. We of ten seem to forget that. Why? Think of someone you are angry with or don't like. How does thinking about your words and actions towards that person as God's words and actions impact you?
