*Call to Worship (9:00 & 10:30 AM)

Lay Reader

One: If we wander from Love's way out of fear or in pursuit of power,

All: God reaches after us.

One: If we are turned away from the places we once called home,

All: God companions us.

One: If we desire to create places of belonging that are just and restorative,

All: God empowers us.

One: If we go looking for what has been missing within us,

All: God meets us in the searching.

Praise be to God who leads us on paths of restoration.

*Hymn #339 (9:00 & 10:30 AM) Come, Sinners, to the Gospel Feast

Opening Prayer (9:00 & 10:30 AM)

Lay Reader

Holy One, we know we need each other.

We know that we depend on one another to build communities that are whole and healthy.

When there are rifts and wounds among us or around us, may we be people who show up to the work of repair and restoration.

For this sacred labor, strengthen our hearts and ground us in your love.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Anthem (10:30 AM only) Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing
Sanctuary Choir

Roland E. Martin

Come, thou fount of ev'ry blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I raise my greatest treasure, hither by thy help I've come,
And I hope by thy good pleasure safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger wandering from the fold of God;
He to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

O, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness like a fetter bind my wandering heart to thee;
Prone to wander, Lord I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, oh take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Proclamation of the Word

Children's Message (10:30 AM only)

Rev. Kate Mackereth Fulton

Luke 15:1-10 (9:00 & 10:30 AM)

Lay Reader

¹Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him.

²And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

³So he told them this parable: ⁴"Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? ⁵And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. ⁶And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost sheep.'
⁷Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

⁸"Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.'
¹⁰Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

L: And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

P: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues the thanksgiving and concludes:

L: And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy

The pastor continues and concludes:

L: All honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

Farewell, Pastor Kate!

On Pastor Kate's last Sunday with us at St. Paul's, we share some picture-perfect and candid moments captured during her time as our Associate Pastor. St. Paul's members and friends were invited to share special memories, photos, and best wishes. Some of those are included in the following pages.

Blessing pets during worship in the park.

Thank you, Pastor Kate for all of your hard work to open our minds and hearts wider to God and our neighbors & siblings. Your passion in your work and righting our world is awe inspiring. So many well wishes for your next adventure!

Pastor Kate - THANK YOU!! Your time with us has been a blessing, to me personally and I believe to the entire congregation. Thank you for sharing your whole self with us, for modeling a robust faith in and reliance on God, and for your steadfast spirit! All of these will serve you well as you work among the people of Trinity UMC. Blessings to that congregation and to you as you move on to this next appointment!

I will never forget being in the sanctuary when Pastor Kate came out to our congregation. It was so courageous and so true of her and yet so special that she trusted us with that vulnerability.

~Lesley Maloney

Thank you for being our spiritual leader through such a unique time in our church's history (and world history!). We have appreciated your openness, willingness to push for change and push us to consider change through your wise and daring sermons. We are praying for you in your next steps.

Love, The Stalcupps

Pastor Kate always “kept it real” in the pulpit. Unafraid to talk about any aspect of her life -- her valleys, her peaks, and definitely, her animals.

This made not only her relatable, but it made the idea of our relationship with God more relatable and approachable as well.
~The Maloney Family

Just one of a thousand Covid-era Zoom meetings.....

Pastor Kate has cultivated such a welcoming environment for members and friends of St. Paul's Church. We are sending Kate lots of hugs and warm wishes and will miss her vibrant energy!

Andrew and Kate

When I first met Pastor Kate, I sensed that she was a special gift to us. Talk about underestimating someone! Pastor Kate is much more than special, Pastor Kate is a truly inspirational person. Friends like Kate are rare - to be treasured. Thank you for your time spent guiding us - your energy, knowledge, personal courage; and sense of humor has taught us a lot about being responsible followers of Jesus. You and Andrew will always be in my thoughts and prayers. - Rich Higgins

I am so grateful I got to know Kate for our brief time at St. Paul's. Kate, I just wanted you to know that, among other things, it was an honor to work with you on the LGBTQ+ initiatives at St. Paul's. Your leadership and knowledge of the circumstances was powerful and your insight for how to move forward was very meaningful. I'm absolutely certain it will make a positive difference in the lives of many people. Thank you, and I know God will be watching over you in your new position.

With warm regards,

Recording devotionals (sometimes with guitar!) from home, and livestreaming worship from the Sanctuary during covid.

One of my favorite funny memories of Kate is when Collier was getting baptized, which I believe was one of Pastor Kate's first baptisms to do at our church. Rev. Snell asked our oldest daughter, Emma Kate, to go and grab the gift blanket.

Pastor Kate only heard the "Kate" and headed over to grab the blanket as well.

It provided a good laugh for everyone.

Baptism in the Chapel.

We have enjoyed Pastor Kate's time at St Paul's immensely. She brought energy, enthusiasm, brightness, and openness to everything she did. It was fun and inspiring to see her tackle hard topics in her sermons, see her share her personal story, and evolve along with the rest of us during the Covid pandemic. She was the model of patience, resiliency and perseverance. Our faith was sustained and enriched by her service to this congregation. We wish her the very best and God's continued love as she moves onto her next community.
