*Rejoice, be glad, lift your voice and sing! The King of love, the glorious King,
Has conquered death and He lives again. Let earth and heaven ring!*

*On Easter morn at the break of day, to the tomb the women made their way.
"He is not here," the angel said, "He is risen from the dead!"*

Has conquered death and He lives again. Let earth and heaven ring!*

Proclamation of the Word

Acts 10:34-43 (NRSVUE)

Lay Reader

Pew Bible: New Testament p. 129-130

³⁴Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, ³⁵but in every people anyone who fears him and practices righteousness is acceptable to him. ³⁶You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all. ³⁷That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: ³⁸how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. ³⁹We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, ⁴⁰but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, ⁴¹not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Matthew 28:1-10 (NRSVUE)

Lay Reader

Pew Bible: New Testament p. 33-34

¹After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ²And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³His appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow. ⁴For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. ⁵But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶He is not here, for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.” ⁸So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹Suddenly Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Invitation to Giving

Rev. Joey Heath-Mason

As is our tradition, 100% of the Easter Special Offering will be dedicated to serving beyond the walls of St. Paul's. The beneficiaries of the Easter Special Offering for 2026 are chosen by the St. Paul's Leadership Team. This year, the Easter Offering will be divided evenly between The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), providing emergency aid and long-term rebuilding assistance to communities worldwide facing natural disasters or man-made crises, and the Shelter Meals program at St. Paul's providing weekly meals for residents of InterFaith Works shelters in Montgomery County. Please donate using the Easter Offering envelope found in your bulletin today. Please make checks payable to St. Paul's UMC with "Easter Offering" in the memo line. To donate by credit card, scan the QR code or visit stpaulsk.org/worship/lent-and-easter. All other offerings, including pledged support or general donations, should be made using an envelope other than the Easter Offering envelope, or online at stpaulsk.org/giving.

Thanksgiving and Holy Communion

The Invitation, Confession, and Pardon (United Methodist Hymnal p. 12)

Pastor: Christ our Lord invites to this table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin, and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and our neighbor.

People: Merciful God, We confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Moment of Silent Prayer

Pastor: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Glory to God. Amen.

* Passing the Peace

The Great Thanksgiving (United Methodist Hymnal p. 13-14)

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Pastor: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, God Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

The pastor offers words for the occasion and concludes:

And so, with all your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

People: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Pastor: Holy are you and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

The pastor offers words for the occasion and concludes:

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

The pastor presents the bread and cup for remembrance and concludes:

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Pastor: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here and on these gifts of the bread and the cup. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (United Methodist Hymnal, #895)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
