Juneteenth: Freedom That Still Speaks Today

“So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.” — John 8:36

Juneteenth is more than a historical milestone — it is a spiritual reminder that God's justice may be delayed by human hands, but it is never denied. Its message is urgently relevant in a world still wrestling with inequality, division, and the meaning of true freedom.

Freedom is God's idea. It always has been. From Israel's deliverance from Egypt to Jesus' deliverance from sin, God has consistently revealed Himself as the One who breaks chains — physical, emotional, spiritual, and systemic. That is why Juneteenth is not just a cultural celebration; it is a spiritual one.

The Story That Still Preaches

While watching history being erased, white-washed, or otherwise retold for the comfort of the perpetrators of injustice, I don't want to presume we all had a chance to learn the real story. Juneteenth marks June 19, 1865, the day when enslaved people in Galveston, Texas finally learned they were free — two and a half years after the Emancipation Proclamation. Freedom had been declared, but it had not been delivered. Justice had been promised, but it had been withheld.

This delay is not just a historical fact; it is a spiritual metaphor.

How many times has God spoken freedom over our lives, yet we continue living as though the chains are still locked? How often has God declared a new season, while we remain stuck in an old one? Juneteenth reminds us that delayed awareness does not cancel God's promise.

It also reminds us that systems can resist what God has already ordained. Human institutions may stall justice, but they cannot stop it. God's word always outlives oppression.

Why Juneteenth Matters More Than Ever

Juneteenth speaks powerfully to our current moment because the struggle for freedom is not finished. Not then. Not now. Here are three reasons its message is urgently relevant today:

The Senior Pastor's Letter

1. Freedom is still unevenly experienced. Many people today still live under the weight of injustice — racial, economic, social, gender or spiritual. Juneteenth calls us to confront the uncomfortable truth that freedom declared is not the same as freedom lived. God calls His people to be agents of liberation, not spectators.
2. Truth still needs to be proclaimed. Just as enslaved people in Texas needed to hear the truth of their freedom, our world still needs truth spoken boldly — truth about dignity, equality, and the image of God in every person. Silence is not neutral. Silence delays freedom.
3. Unity is still fragile. Juneteenth is not only about the end of slavery; it is about the ongoing work of reconciliation. It calls us to build bridges, not walls. To listen, not dismiss. To heal, not ignore. The gospel compels us toward a unity that is not shallow or sentimental, but courageous and costly.

A Spiritual Call to Action

Juneteenth invites followers of Christ to examine our hearts:

- Where have we accepted delayed justice as normal?
- Where have we allowed division to replace compassion?
- Where have we ignored the suffering of others because it did not touch us personally?

God's freedom is not passive. It moves. It disrupts. It transforms. And it calls us to participate.

On Saturday June 13, from 12:00 – 4:00 PM, the Town of Kensington will commemorate Juneteenth by “Acknowledging the Past, Charting the Future.” We will gather in St. Paul Park (10564 St. Paul Street, Kensington MD) for this 5th annual event. Come out. Join your friends and neighbors and our church. The celebration is a family-friendly event with live music, living history interpreters, local vendors and black-owned businesses, family activities and kid zone, food, beverages, and treats.

Juneteenth is not just a date on the calendar. It is a reminder that:

- God's justice may be delayed, but it is unstoppable.
- Freedom is both a gift and a responsibility.
- We are called to be carriers of liberation in a world still longing for it.

The same God who broke chains in Egypt, in Galveston, and in countless lives since still breaks chains today. The question is: Will we join Him in the work?

Thoughts from Pastor Joey

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.”
Matthew 5:9

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus does not say, “Blessed are the peace-wishers,” or “Blessed are the peace-talkers,” or even “Blessed are those who hope things eventually calm down.” Jesus says, “Blessed are the peacemakers.”

Peace, in the way of Christ, is not passive. It is something we actively engage in through prayer while doing our best to work toward and embody all that is the peace of Christ.

As we start the summer, I want to invite our congregation into a simple challenge: let us spend intentional time praying for peace.

We all know the conflicts that are raging across the world, some involving our own nation and some not. We see wars that have destroyed lives, homes, families, hospitals, schools, and communities. We know that violence disrupts food production, blocks access to basic needs, and leads to hunger and starvation. We know that children caught in war will carry its marks, both visible and invisible, for the rest of their lives.

And we also know that conflict is not only “over there.”

There are deep wounds within our own borders: the challenging of voter rights, the politics of division, racial tensions, the inhumane treatment of neighbors, and the constant temptation to see other people not as beloved children of God but as enemies, obstacles, or problems to be solved.

In times like these, prayer can feel small. But prayer is not nothing. Prayer is where God begins to change us. Prayer softens hardened hearts. Prayer teaches us to see others as God sees them. Prayer gives us courage to speak truth, strength to resist hatred, and wisdom to become peacemakers in our homes, churches, communities, and world.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 says, “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.”

Always be praying. Give thanks in all things not because everything is what we hope it to be, but because we believe God and God's people are making it so. That is our instruction.

So this month, I invite you to take a few minutes each day to pray for peace. Pray for peace in the world. Pray for peace in our nation. Pray for peace in our community. Pray for peace in our church. Pray for peace in your own heart. You might pray something as simple as this:

*Lord Jesus, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, sow love.
Where there is injury, bring healing.
Where there is fear, bring courage.
Where there is division, bring understanding.
Where there is violence, bring justice and mercy.
And where I can be a peacemaker, give me the faith to follow you. Amen.*

May we not only pray for peace, but become people through whom God's peace is made visible.

Blessed are the peacemakers. May we be counted among them.

The Smith Education Award

On Sunday, May 31, St. Paul's leaders presented the Jim Smith Education Award for 2026 to Jonah Chen (pictured above with parents and siblings). This financial gift is awarded annually to one or more graduating high school seniors to support them as they move into the next chapter of their education or training. The awards are now named for St. Paul's own James Bigelow Smith, Jr., known as Jim Smith, a teacher, mentor, and member of St. Paul's from 1982 until his death in 2024. Jonah Chen will be attending Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine starting in the fall. By coincidence, the late Jim Smith also graduated from Bowdoin, class of 1962, and many years later served as the confirmation class mentor for Jonah's older brother, Elias!

Lay Leader Reflections

From Anne Dean, Lay Leader

The Church Leadership Team isn't just a committee, it's a place where we use our spiritual gifts to stay focused on our mission, support the ministries of the church, pray and discern how God is leading us, and make important decisions about the future of the church.

The Leadership Team meets once a month in the evenings at the church, with a few folks joining on Zoom. We have set topics we work through like updates from the pastors, stewardship efforts and budget updates, and new exciting ministries; we are looking forward to building a strategic plan. Sometimes there are topics where folks split off, for small group work or fact finding, then report back for action like awarding the Jim Smith Educational Award we just presented to one of our graduating seniors, or Pastor Appreciation Month in October. There are short emails sometimes between meetings to address things like Christmas or Easter offering or other important topics that cannot wait until a next meeting.

In using the one-board model, all members of the Church Leadership Team are also members of the Staff Parish Relations Committee. The SPRC functions much like Human Resources, but with a focus on covenant and healthy relationships. We support staff, evaluate ministry, work through administration and appointments.

We have such a wide variety of discussions and needs, requiring a wide variety of spiritual gifts. Serving on the Church Leadership Team may be one of the ways God is calling you to help guide our church's mission. You do not need to be an expert, only someone who cares about the mission of our church.

Pride Parade

Saturday, June 20 in Washington DC

Join St. Paul's and dozens of other United Methodists as we celebrate love, inclusion, and community at the Capital Pride Parade! We have reserved 10 spots for those who would like to walk with us. Exact time and location details will be shared closer to the date. Learn more at <https://capitalumcpride.com/>. To reserve a spot or ask questions, contact Rev. Joey Heath-Mason at joeyhm@stpaulsk.org.

Some Capital Pride Parade FAQ's

- Meet-up details: Specific locations are posted by the parade organizer the day prior to the event! There will be a very obvious banner and truck for the UMC group. Groups may be assigned exact times based on their position in the parade. Be sure Pastor Joey has your contact info (and you have his!) so you get the necessary updates!
- Do I HAVE to walk? Most participants should plan to walk. The Capitol UMC Pride Contingent is planning to rent a professionally-driven trailer which includes limited seating. Please ask early if you need this option!
- What to wear & bring: Light breathable colorful clothing, good walking shoes, sunscreen, water.
- Can I (or my family) join at the last minute? Unfortunately, due to the size of the parade and limits on space, walking in the parade is only open to those who register with their group in advance.

More Ways to Be Involved

Many groups meet regularly during the year, and there are many ways to get involved with ministries, outreach, and hospitality at St. Paul's. Here are some of the groups inviting you to join in ministry and fellowship.

Wednesdays at 10:00 AM

Prayerwaves meets each week by phone. We take turns lifting up the needs of the church, community, and the world. On Wednesday, dial 425-436-6326 a few minutes before 10:00 AM. Enter access code 774042 followed by the # sign. If you would like to receive the prayer list by email, please contact Erin Steele in the church office at stpaulsunited@stpaulsk.org.

This time for fellowship with drinks and snacks after worship occurs whenever a family, class, or groups offers to host. You might serve the ever-popular coffee and cookies... or it might be lemonade and cheese crackers, tea and tarts, cider and donuts, cocoa and candy canes... you decide! To host, simply add your name or group to the chart on the office bulletin board and take an instructions sheet (also available for download at stpaulsk.org/community/calendar-events).

Would life feel better right now if you had someone to listen to your worries and cares? Stephen Ministers are there for you! Stephen Ministers have received special training to provide one-on-one Christian care to those who are experiencing challenging life events. To learn how you or someone you know can receive care – or how to become a Stephen Minister – contact Martha Lipscomb, Stephen Leader, at mmlipscomb@verizon.net or 301-518-1642.

Few things better demonstrate our hospitality than making sure all of our members and friends receive a warm welcome upon arrival at church, and that new Sunday morning visitors can get some simple questions answered! Please consider participating in St. Paul's Welcome Ministry. We are always looking for volunteers to cover the welcome table by the Sanctuary doors and guide people as they enter for worship. Families are invited to volunteer together!

St. Paul's makes every effort to reach out to those who are experiencing times of sickness, grief, change, or celebration by providing greeting cards each week. On typical Sundays, anyone can stop by the Welcome Desk to pick up a pre-addressed, pre-stamped card. You can write a personal note or simply sign the card and drop it in the mail. We know card recipients are truly thankful for the notes that come their way.

Want to send your own card later, or spend some time in prayer for our members and friends? Pick up a Congregational Care list at the welcome desk on Sunday mornings. Please note that the Congregational Care list is not exhaustive. For privacy reasons, St. Paul's only shares information if given permission to do so by the person(s) involved or an immediate family member. If you have information to share please contact Erin Steele in the church office at stpaulsunited@stpaulsk.org.

Church leaders at St. Paul's serve in a unified board to guide such things as the church mission and ministry, finances, and personnel. The Leadership Team meets once a month in-person in the Octagon with a Zoom option, all meetings are open to the public. Contact the chairperson for 2026, Bill Stephens (wtstephens@verizon.net) for the meeting schedule and the Zoom link. For more about the Leadership Team, visit stpaulsk.org/community/meet-the-staff and scroll to the bottom of the page.
