Our Guest Speaker

J. Kevin Butcher is the founding pastor of Hope Community Church of Detroit, a messy fellowship of human beings from every kind of racial, economic, and educational background who own their emptiness and pursue healing through the love of God in Jesus Christ. Kevin has written numerous articles and shared the message of the Father's love in 12 different countries. He is the executive director of Rooted Ministries, Inc., a nonprofit designed to come alongside isolated and discouraged pastors. Kevin has been married to his best friend, Carla, for 40 years, and they deeply love their 3 grown daughters, sons-in-laws, and grandchildren.
