

PASTOR'S NOTE

The first "First Monday Prayer Gathering" is in the record books and what a special night it was. About 20 of us prayed and worshipped for about 90 minutes. The evening was an answer to prayer for me and an incredible beginning to what I believe will be a turning point for CRF if we will persevere. Thanks to all who attended. Next one, March 5th.

I just want to take a moment to express how thankful I am to have my son, Zack, working with me in ministry here at CRF. I am telling you as one who has trained three other men for Pastoral ministry during my time here, that he is gifted and experienced enough to Pastor virtually anywhere he might choose. But God has placed him here with us and we are all recipients of his talents. I am extremely proud of who he is and how desperately he wants to serve and build up the Church. I am proud of him as a Husband to Dena, and as a Dad to Ethan, Gabe, and Avery. If he has one weakness, it would be that he doesn't appreciate how awesome his dog Trevor is. In all seriousness, even if he was not my son, I would and I do count it a privilege to serve this Church and community with him. I trust his judgment, value his opinion, and am blessed beyond words by his ministry. I just wanted you to know.

This year's Annual Business Meeting will be held on Sunday, March 11th. If you have an item of business that you would like on the agenda of the business meeting, please submit it in writing to Kim Bresser, Board Secretary, by Sunday, March 4th. If you are a member, please prioritize attending this important meeting. "Keep Your Hand To The Plow."

Have a Great week in the Lord! Love—Pastor Jeff

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, <sup>2</sup>fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
