

PASTOR'S NOTE

Just in case you didn't notice, Michelle and I have not been around for a couple of weeks. We have been getting some rest and relaxation down south on the shores of the Gulf of Mexico in a beautiful city named Orange Beach, Alabama. I never thought I would be hanging out with the "snowbirds" down south in the winter, but we have enjoyed going down there over the past 8 years. It was good to get away, but we are ready to be back and to charge ahead together.

Starting on Wednesday, March 27th, during the Family Night activities, I will be leading an Adult Class titled "Psalm 119". The following is a course description:

Even the most mature believers face dark nights of the soul. During those times, God feels distant, His Word dry, and the vibrant intimacy we knew before seems absent leaving us wondering, "Where is the Lord in this?" In Psalm 119, pastor Matt Chandler aims to introduce viewers to the words of King David who experienced similar seasons of life. Serving as the anchor for the study, Psalm 119 demonstrates the power of God's Word in the lives of believers and its ability to provide a warm blanket for the soul.

Each of the 10 sessions will include a short video clip featuring Matt Chandler, followed by a time of group study and discussion. Sign up at the Visitor's Center. Lastly, next Sunday is the Annual Business Meeting after the Morning Service. Be there! "Keep Your Hand To The Plow."

Have a GREAT week!! Love—Pastor Jeff

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, ²fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
