

PASTOR'S NOTE

It's been more than 100 years since Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Mother's Day a national celebration in May 1914! To mark the occasion now celebrated annually on the second Sunday in May you could lavish mom with flowers, cards or other gifts. But how about giving her something that won't wilt, collect dust or be thrown away. Tell mom how important she is with words—specifically iconic quotes that remind her how important moms are to everyone. Need help finding the perfect words? Here are the top five memorable words spoken by famous people about their mothers: 1. "All that I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." —Abraham Lincoln 2. "My mother has always been my emotional barometer and my guidance. I was lucky enough to get to have one woman who truly helped me through everything." —Emma Stone 3. "I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life." —Abraham Lincoln 4. "My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her." —George Washington 5. "Life began with waking up and loving my mother's face." —George Eliot

Starting next Sunday, I will begin a 3-week series titled, "Power For Life." This series coincides with the Holiday that celebrates the birth of the New Testament Church, Pentecost Sunday. That title, "Power For Life", really sums up the entire reason why God chose to launch His church with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This series will teach us why and how to live the Spirit-filled life. "Keep Your Hand To The Plow."

CROSSROADS
FELLOWSHIP

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, <sup>2</sup>fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
—Hebrews 12:1-2
