Dear Christian School Leader:

Psalm 78:4 admonishes us to show “the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.” As a leader in Christian education, I know that one of your greatest desires is to have more than just a “positive impact” on the next generation; you want to influence them to follow Christ and to love the Lord with their heart, soul, mind, and strength.

The Mid-South American Association of Christian Schools wants to stand with your school in this endeavor! MSAACS is a regional affiliate of the American Association of Christian Schools. The states of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Mississippi comprise the the Mid-South Region.

Included with this letter, you will find the MSAACS registration paperwork. Simply complete the paperwork and email/mail it back to me. Along with the benefits of being an AACCS member, let me share with you some of the additional benefits that MSAACS members enjoy.

First, as an MSAACS member, you will receive access to a number of discounts for your school. The partnerships that we have with BJU Press, Church Mutual, and Shared Purchasing Solutions can put dollars back into your budget. It truly does pay to be a member of the Mid-South American Association of Christian Schools!

Second, we sponsor the MSAACS Teacher In-service Day (every even year) and the MSAACS Regional Educators’ Convention (every odd year). Both of these events provide practical and challenging professional development for your staff. Keynote and workshop sessions will encourage your team to continue to pursue their God-given calling in an excellent manner.

Third, annual competitions will be held in academics, fine arts, and Bible. High school students who win first place will have an opportunity to compete nationally at the AACCS National Fine Arts Competition held each April.

The things mentioned above represent just a handful of the benefits that you will receive as an MSAACS member. Please review the information that I have included with this letter, and feel free to contact me with any questions! I can be reached by phone at 817-565-4876 or by email at mticzkus@aaccs.org. Also, additional information can be found on our website, www.msaacs.com.

I look forward to hearing from you and from partnering with you as you seek to fulfill God’s calling on your ministry!

Sincerely,

Matt Ticzkus

AACS Statement of Faith

We believe that the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments, was verbally inspired of God, and is inerrant and is our only rule in matters of faith and practice. We believe in creation, not evolution; that man was created by the direct act of God and in the image of God. We believe that Adam and Eve, in yielding to the temptation of Satan, became fallen creatures. We believe that all men are born in sin. We believe in the Incarnation, the Virgin Birth, and the Deity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We believe in the vicarious and substitutional atonement for the sins of mankind by the shedding of His blood on the cross. We believe in the resurrection of His body from the tomb, His ascension to Heaven, and that He is now our Advocate. We believe that He is personally coming again. We believe in His power to save men from sin. We believe in the necessity of the New Birth, and that this New Birth is through the regeneration of the Holy Spirit. We believe that salvation is by grace through faith, plus nothing minus nothing, in the atoning of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

We believe that this statement of faith is basic for Christian fellowship and that all born-again men and women who sincerely accept it and are separated from the world of apostasy and sin can, and should, live together in peace and that it is their Christian duty to promote harmony among the believers.

We further believe in the Biblical doctrine of ecclesiastical separation, and therefore believe that churches and Christian schools should not be associated with, members of, or in accord with organizations or movements such as the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches, the modern charismatic movement, or the ecumenical movement.

AACS Membership Statement

Membership will not be afforded to those associated with, members of, or in accord with the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches, the modern charismatic movement, or the ecumenical movement.

We are in complete agreement with the above AACS Statement of Faith and the Membership Statement.
