Missionary News: Makin Yee (Thailand)

Makin had to go to Indonesia to get her visa renewed. While there she visited a Live Global ministry in several Muslim communities, at ten small schools. Many children only attend during their primary years, dropping out to help their families search for food. The ministry provides students with food so some attend for that.

Back in Thailand, Makin continues teaching English after school, sharing the Gospel along with the activities that take place in the school parking lot, which the owner now wants to sell. If the school administrator cannot raise funds to buy it, he may sell it to the Chinese mafia, and the school may be forced to close. Pray that God will preserve this school ministry.
