Missionary News: Makin Yee (Thailand)

Recently a visiting mission team joined with Makin to conduct a day camp at a local government school, a two-day cheer and volleyball camp for girls, and a one-day camp at a village where no missionary had ever been before. The gospel was shared throughout the time the team interacted with the children and young people. Pray that seeds planted will grow in hearts and opportunities will arise for them to learn more. The team also learned about Project Justice, a ministry to children who are rescued from dangerous situations. During the day, the team helped repaint three of the buildings where these children live, and in the evenings, they played games and shared the gospel with them.
