Ministerial License Application (Part 2)

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

It is important that candidates for the service of God and the church not only be of upright Christian character and blameless life, but also hold sound doctrine and be able to clearly express their views upon the fundamentals of the faith.

Please state your views in response to the following questions.

Give scriptural support for each question.

1. State your beliefs about the inspiration of scripture.
2. State your beliefs about the triune God.
3. State your beliefs about the deity of Christ.
4. State your beliefs regarding the virgin birth of Christ and its importance.
5. State your beliefs regarding the nature or form and importance of Christ's resurrection.
6. State your beliefs about the person of the Holy Spirit.
7. State your beliefs about the origins of the earth, how man and woman came into existence, their original nature and what it means to be created in the image of God. State your beliefs as to whether Adam and Eve were real, historical people.
8. What effect did original sin have upon humanity? Describe the nature and state of an unregenerate person.
9. Give a brief outline of the gospel as you understand it.
10. How does a person become a Christian? What is God's role in salvation? What is a person's role?
11. Describe what it means to be a fully devoted follower of Christ.
12. What is your view regarding the assurance of salvation for the believer? What is your understanding of apostasy?
13. Explain your understanding of the doctrine of sanctification.
14. What does it mean to be filled with the Holy Spirit? In what ways does the Holy Spirit manifest Himself in a believer?
15. Discuss your view regarding the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the church today. What are your convictions about the exercise of the gift of tongues in particular? Is it for everyone?
16. State your position on divine healing.

17. Explain your beliefs about eschatology, specifically with reference to:
 - a. The rapture and the period known as the tribulation
 - b. The Second Coming of Jesus
 - c. The millennial reign
 - d. The final judgment
 - e. The place and state of a person's spirit (believers and unbelievers) between death and resurrection
 - f. The eternal place and state of believers and unbelievers
18. What do you believe concerning the spiritual and eternal state of those who have never heard the gospel? Explain how God can be merciful and just at the same time.
19. What does baptism mean? Who is eligible for baptism? Is there a biblically prescribed mode?
20. Explain the significance of the Lord's Supper. Who is eligible to participate?
21. How would you define marriage? What does the Bible teach about divorce? Is divorce ever permissible for a believer? If so, when? Can a divorced person ever remarry? If so, when?
22. What are your views regarding gender, sexual orientation and sexuality? How would you counsel someone with same sex attraction? What are your views on homosexual acts?
23. What are your views regarding abortion and euthanasia?
24. What is your belief concerning a Christian's participation in civil government? What are your views regarding Christians serving in the military?
25. What is the purpose and mission of the local church?
26. Have you read the Constitution of the Missionary Church including the position papers? Do you agree with the Constitution of the Missionary Church and the position papers without reservation? If you have reservations or have any religious views at variance with the teaching of the Missionary Church, explain in detail.

The above is a frank statement of my doctrinal beliefs on these matters. If, during my affiliation with the Missionary Church I come to hold a different attitude on any of the above matters, I will promptly notify my regional or district director or appropriate denominational officer.

I hereby apply for credentials as a minister or missionary in the Missionary Church.
