Things to Do

Annual Congregational Meeting

Today, 12:00-1:00 pm All confirmed members of Good Shepherd are encouraged to attend this annual congregational meeting in the Sanctuary to help celebrate God's work at GSLC in 2018 and hear more about the plans crafted by our council, staff, and ministry teams for 2019. Light refreshments will be served.

Generations Forum

Sundays (January 27, February 3, 10 & 17), 9:30-10:30 am, Underwood North Good Shepherd, blessed with folks from all existing generations, is unique in its potential for strong cross-generational relationships. But before relationships can be built, first must come understanding and empathy – both gained by listening. Join all the generations for this four-week Generations Forum. A new generation will be represented each week by a panel. Each panel will be asked and answer the same questions and will teach a generation-specific skill to the audience.

Today, the Gospel Gathering begins a six-week study entitled The Twenty-four Hours That Changed the World during the Sunday School hour in Underwood West. Through interactive power point presentations, we will examine Mark's account of the last hours of Jesus' life and what those final moments mean to us in the twenty-first century. Join us for a pre-Lenten Biblical study that will include discussions, art and music and that will set the tone for a deeper understanding of the Passion story.

Baptismal Seminar

Monday, January 28, 6:00-7:00 pm, Underwood North If you are considering baptism at Good Shepherd, make plans to attend this baptismal seminar. We will discuss the baptismal rite, the responsibilities, and the marks of baptism that make up this ancient sacrament. For more information, contact Pr. Marsha.
