SUNDAY WORSHIP—WOODBURY CAMPUS

Jesus said, “You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

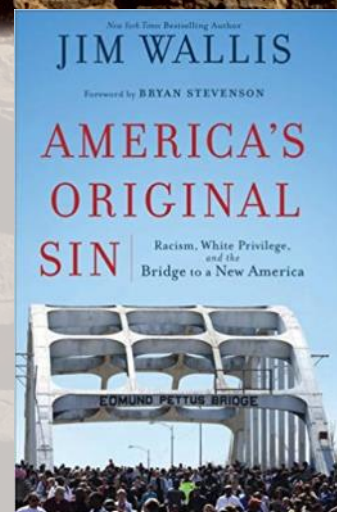

Christians are called to seek the truth, even when it makes us uncomfortable.

Hard Truths will help us grow in the love of God and neighbor by facing the hard truths of injustice, privilege and racism, and the wonderful truth of God’s redeeming love.

February 18	America’s Original Sin: Racism
February 25	Waking Up White: Understanding Culture and Identity
March 4	Special Benefits: What Is Privilege?
March 11	Welcoming the Stranger: Immigration Justice
March 18	The Truth Will Set You Free: Redeeming Love
March 25	Palm Sunday: Parade or Protest?

ALL-CHURCH STUDY Begins February 18

America's Original Sin addresses the issues of race and racism that have deep roots in American history. Racism is our nation's original sin. Jim Wallis's book outlines the historical realities of race in America and how they contribute to contemporary injustice and then maps a path toward racial justice and a new America.
