

Sunday, January 21, 2024

Sunday School Study Guide

Sandra Sims, Facilitator

Read: 1 Timothy 1:1-11

Reread 1 Timothy 1: 1, 2. answer the questions:

1. What is different about this letter than most of the “prison letters”?
2. Since Timothy knows Paul, why do you think Paul mentions he is an Apostle?
3. What do we see regarding the relationship between Paul and Timothy?
4. What is the source of grace and peace?

Reread 1 Timothy 1: 3-11. Answer the questions:

5. What was Timothy’s responsibility in Ephesus?
6. What may classify as “strange doctrine”?
7. Why would anyone want to study myths and endless genealogies?
8. What could be examples of this kind of behavior?
9. What is the result of engaging in these types of discussions?
10. What should a believer busy himself doing?
11. What is your goal when you share your faith?
12. What are some examples of “fruitless discussions”?
13. What should you do if believers around you want to engage in these discussions?
14. What does Paul mean that the law is not made for the righteous person?
15. Who is the law made for? Why?
16. Have believers been entrusted with the gospel of God?
If so, what should this knowledge spur you to do?