FEATURED COURSE

Most Christians are either afraid to share the gospel or feel that they don't know how to share the gospel, or both. Programs and formulas have overcomplicated evangelism, so the vast majority of Christians simply don't do it. It's left to professionals or those trained and gifted in evangelism.

In reality, evangelism is simply telling two stories: Jesus' and yours (how Jesus changed your life forever). Everybody loves to tell and hear stories. The goal is not to win arguments but to win souls. We share the gospel because we love God and we love other people.

This study helps group members identify people and places already in their daily routines, encouraging and empowering them to share the good news of Jesus Christ. Evangelism shouldn't be an artificial religious sales pitch. We shouldn't be afraid of burning bridges with people we know and love. Instead, we should build bridges with our stories to connect people to the heart of the Savior.

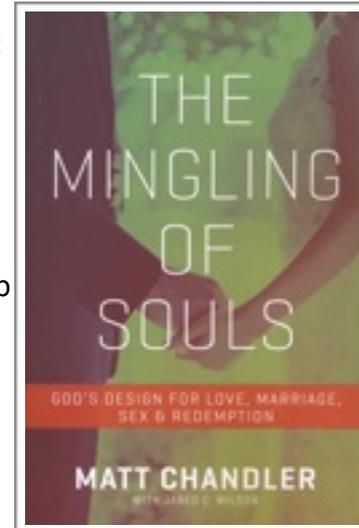

This refreshing look at evangelism from Greg Laurie, one of the nation's most prominent pastors and evangelists, will help Christians — new and old alike — discover the joy of evangelism as the good news of Jesus naturally overflows into their daily lives.

Wednesdays, 6:00 pm, beginning Sept. 14 in MC 111W (Ad. 2 SS area), led by Keith Clayton. 6 sessions. Book cost: $15.

The Mingling of Souls by Matt Chandler

God's Design for Love, Marriage, Sex & Redemption.

In today's world, we're inundated with songs, movies, and advice that contradict and cheapen God's design for love and intimacy. Helping married couples and singles navigate these concerns, Matt Chandler offers an eternal, counterintuitive perspective from the Song of Solomon. Discover the process that this biblical role model followed - from attraction and courtship to marriage and arguing. This is a study of love, dating, marriage, intimacy, and redemption based on biblical wisdom and example. In a culture where the foundations of attraction, love, marriage, and sex are rapidly eroding, Chandler offers an eternal, counter-intuitive perspective.

Sundays at 5:30 pm, starting Sept. 11.

9 sessions. In the Parlor on the Main Campus
Book cost: $10
