QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. To “ABIDE” in Jesus is to actively remain and continue in Him.
Are you abiding in Jesus? Do you consider yourself one who strives to do this?
Why or why not?
2. John expresses a sense of urgency for us to ABIDE in Christ so that we may have confidence when He returns. Does Jesus’ imminent return alter your faith, daily life, or your priorities?
3. As a Christian living in the world, what challenges do you face day to day, at school, work, etc.? (Have others READ... John 1:10; 3:13; 4:5; and 5:19.)
4. John says God is a Father, we are his children, and we are to love other Christians as brothers and sisters. Why do you think John emphasizes these family relationships?
5. How does living this way prove our RIGHTEOUSNESS?
6. Why was it important for Jesus to be without sin? What does his sinlessness have to do with our personal relationship with God? (See Hebrews 7:27 and 10:10.)
7. As a group, make a list of attributes that would indicate whether someone has a familial resemblance as part of God’s family.
