

Love One Another

1 John 5:13-21

1. When thinking of eternal life, what is one thing from each person that you look forward to? (Try not to duplicate answers) ex.
2. What are some of the things that you just mentioned that you personally struggle with on earth?
3. If we "live in the temporary and exist in the eternal" what are some ways that we can encourage one another here on earth.
4. Is there any words of encouragement you might have for a brother or sister currently in your group?
5. Take the next few minutes and pray for one another.
6. How do we get closer to understanding the will of God?
7. What does praying for the will of God mean to you? How will this change our prayer life?
8. What idols/distractions in our own lives keep us from getting to know the heart of God.
9. How does knowing God translate to loving others?
10. Choose one way to love somebody this week the way you feel like God loves us. Come back and share next week.
