To everything in life there is a season with every phase a purpose and reason

When one season ends a new one will begin gaining wisdom from where we have been

A season to press forward to what lies ahead leaving the past behind and by Jesus being led

A season to labor in the harvest field and a time to rest while in comes the yield

A season to weep and a time to rejoice a time to be silent and a time to lift up our voice

A season to meditate on God's love and His word
a time to tell the gospel to others as you have heard

A season to be healthy, robust, and strong a time of weariness and pain and for Heaven long

A season to abound and a time to suffer need all the while ploughing to sow the gospel seed

A season to be active and a time to be still all things according to God's perfect time and will.

Prayer for Bro. And Sis. Adams

"While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

Lord, You made the seasons from the very beginning. The change of seasons has always been a part of Your promise - that they will never cease.

Jesus, we know that everything that You designed has a purpose, even the seasons of life. We thank You that You are faithful to see us through each of them.

As we come to You today, Lord, we lift up Brother and Sister Adams to You. We thank You that You have blessed them and kept them throughout their time of serving in Africa. We pray that they would be reminded of Your promise in Psalm 92, "Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing; to shew that the LORD is upright: He is my rock, And there is no unrighteousness in Him."

Father, during this time in their lives, we ask that You would help them to know, when seasons in their own lives come and go, it is for Your good.

As they traverse the various seasons of their life, we ask that You would help them to seek Your wisdom to understand and navigate each phase. Life brings a myriad of seasons – times of joy and sorrow, growth and stillness, challenge and ease.

In every season, let them desire to comprehend Your purpose and plan. Grant them the insight to discern what each season is teaching them and how they can align themselves with Your divine will.

Teach them to embrace each season, understanding that there is a time for everything under heaven. Help them to be patient in times of waiting, resilient in times of hardship, and humble in times of abundance.

Bless them with the wisdom to know what they ought to do in each season. For unto You belongs wisdom and counsel, as it is written that the Holy Spirit is a Spirit of wisdom and counsel.

Let them be sensitive to their seasons. Let them move away from every closed door and elapsed season. Open their eyes to see the beauty of the season You are ushering them into. Father, during this season of life, we ask that You would let them be overflowing with joy, peace and hope. In the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.
