Family Values Week 2 – God Only

Ice-Breaker – Have you ever bought anything that was nothing but a disappointment after you got it? What was it and how did it disappoint you?

Was there a main idea that stood out to you in this week's message?

What are the most important values, principles, or activities in your life? Could any of these things become more important to you than God? How can this be prevented?

How do you think God feels when we worship things other than Him?

READ: Exodus 20:4-5

Why do you think God gave this particular commandment?

What are some of the things our society tends to worship?

Have you ever subtly allowed anything to take the place in your life, that should rightly belong only to God?

What are some of the things you have allowed to take God's place in your life?

How could obedience to the second commandment make a difference in your personal life?

When we identify idols in our own lives, what steps can we take to change things?

What proactive step(s) can we take to prevent the possibility of worshipping other gods?

How can you restate this commandment positively, as a freedom?

God said, "You shall not make for yourself an idol..." - Exodus 20:4

Jesus said, "No servant can serve two masters." - Luke 16:13

Closing thought: Can you honestly say that you worship God alone?
