GUARDRAILS Week 3

ICE-BREAKER: In your opinion, what are some of the biggest challenges to sexual purity today?

How can a person avoid compromises that lead to sexual sin?

Do you know anyone whose life would have been dramatically different if they would have had relational guardrails in place? How so?

The area where guardrails are most needed, is often the area where they are most resisted. Why is this?

READ: 1 Corinthians 6:18-20

How is sexual immorality different from other sins?

How does the belief that we were bought at a price and our body is the temple of God's Spirit, make a difference in the way we view our body?

In what settings or situations should a person take precautions against sexual immorality? How?

Sexual sin is unique in that we never fully escape the damage it does. Do you agree with this? If so, why is this the case?

Is it difficult for you to believe that you are a sacred image bearer of God? Why or why not? If you were to embrace this truth, how would it influence the decisions you make going forward?

Why are people reluctant to flee from instead of flirt with sexual immorality? What specific guardrails do you have in place to protect yourself?

Are you considering any new guardrails because of this discussion?

When it comes to your relationships, honor God, yourself, your spouse, your kids, your future spouse, and children. Flee, don't flirt.
