I Love My Church Week 4

ICE-BREAKER: What is your most valuable possession (monetary)? What is your most meaningful possession (sentimental)? Are these items the same?

How easy would it be for you to part with your most valuable possession?
How about your most meaningful possession?

READ: Acts 4:32-37

Do you think this level of sacrificial giving is relevant in the modern church?
Why or why not?

How do you think that act of love would be perceived by the world around us?

Would you ever consider adjusting your lifestyle to help someone in need?
Would you consider living on a budget that includes a line for helping others?

What is the most difficult part of sharing the things we have?

Among the people who attend our church, how many do you think may have a true financial need?

In your opinion, what prevents churches from making sure that no one among them is needy today?

READ: Hebrews 13:16.

What do you think we lose as a church when we withhold financial blessings?
What do we gain as a church when we freely give in love for one another?
What do we gain as individuals?

What would make it easier for you to sacrifice your possessions and money?
Are you humble enough to be a recipient of benevolence yourself?

What has been the most meaningful thing God has said to you through the "I Love My Church" series?
