Called Out From Darkness to Light Week 1

ICE-BREAKER: When have you prayed for a little bit of heaven on earth? What did you pray?

In your opinion, what are the greatest moral problems our country is facing?

Do you think it is possible for morality and character to be restored in today's culture? If so, what do you think it will take for this to happen?

Of the 7 Levels of Transformation that Pastor Steve spoke about Sunday, which do you think are most serious? Please explain your answer. Which is the least significant? In your opinion, which is least likely to change?

READ: Matthew 5:13-16, 2 Peter 1:3, Deuteronomy 6:5-7, and Proverbs 9:10

If we, as believers, live as we are supposed to live, how will it affect our world?

What is the effect of bright light in a dark place? What does light reveal? How might a believer hide his or her light?

What specific behaviors mark the life-style of salty and shining Christians?

Regarding your personal gifts, abilities, and interests, what specific problem in our world can you counteract as a representative of Christ? Where is your impact most likely to be felt?

How can light be leveraged by support within the family? Within the church?

When it comes to living the life God is calling you to live, how important is your personal commitment, your family's support, the influence of the church?

Let's get specific: What can you do to help facilitate a transition from darkness to light, personally, in your family, at church, at school, at work, in the civic realm, and in realm of media?
