Called Out From Darkness to Light Week 2

ICE-BREAKER: How ready are you to make needed changes in your life? Why are people so reluctant to change?

What typically motivates people toward genuine life change?

What was the key catalyst for you to come out of the darkness and into the light as it is found in Jesus Christ?

READ: Luke 15:11-32

Could the prodigal son have anticipated his future getting brighter if he stayed on the road that brought him to the pig pen?

What were some of the risks associated with him going back home? What were some of the potential rewards?

A few years later, do you think the prodigal son would still be able remember his final day in the pig pen? How do you think he felt on the day he was leaving the pig pen?

Describe the emotion that must have flooded his soul when he saw his dad running to meet him?

Is it any wonder that all heaven rejoices whenever a person turns their back on destruction, brokenness, addiction, hopelessness, and sin to follow Jesus?

How can you influence others to make this kind of decision for themselves?

Are there changes you need to make in your life, that you have been putting off? What is preventing you from taking a step of faith today?

In your opinion, what are the most critical daily habits that must be implemented to support positive change in a person's life?
