Family Values Week 10 – Do Not Commit Adultery

Ice-Breaker – What’s so fun about Facebook?

Are there specific challenges social media might pose to relationships?

What practical steps can we take to protect our relationships as we use modern technology?

Was there a main idea that stood out to you in this week’s message?

Who should set the standard when it comes to marriage (culture, Hollywood, whatever feels right in the moment, God, or someone else)?

READ: Exodus 20:14

What does Jesus add to this commandment in Matthew 5:28? What happens to a couple when one commits adultery?

What are some of the potential “side effects” of an adulterous relationship? In addition to marriage, think about the impact on children, colleagues, mental and spiritual health, etc. Is there an impact on society at large?

What are some safeguards that can help us avoid falling into this sin (list some specific steps a person might take to protect themselves and their marriage)?

What is it about adultery that displeases God?

What makes it so difficult for people to keep this Commandment?

How can you restate this Commandment positively, as a freedom?

What are some of the benefits of obeying Commandment #7 and how does obedience make a difference in your life today?

God said, "You must not commit adultery." - Exodus 20:14

Jesus said, "Anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart." – Matthew 5:28
