I Want to Believe, But... Week 3

Ice-Breaker – What usually gives you goosebumps?

What do you do if you want to believe in God, but you don't feel His presence?

How do you believe in a God you can't see?

How do you know you have experienced God's presence?

How can you know that what you are experiencing is truly the presence of God?

What prevents people from feeling God's presence?

How do you handle it when you don't feel God's presence?

Read Acts 17:22-27

What was it that caused you to seek God or reach out for Him?

Tell about a time when you felt God was silent. Looking back, do you see Him any differently because of that experience? If so, how?

Of the three points in this week's message, which do you most closely identify with? You might not always feel God because: 1) you're looking for the wrong thing, 2) your heart has been hardened, or 3) God wants to draw you closer.

How do you experience God most often? How do you think you've come to experience God in this way?

Is anything making it difficult for you to experience God's presence in your life today? Is there anything you need to stop or start?

How can you seek God in the "simple moments" this week?
