Business NOT as Usual Week 3

ICE-BREAKER: Throughout this series Chick-Fil-A has been mentioned as an example of a business that is operating by a higher standard. What are some of the qualities that set them apart from others?

Can you name another great example of a company that is operating their business NOT as usual (local, national, or international)?

READ: Colossians 3:23-24

How important is performance at work? Does the way you work make a difference in how your coworkers perceive Christianity? Can you give a firsthand example of someone's perception of Christ being changed because of someone else's workplace performance?

READ: 1 Peter 3:15

If Jesus has changed your life and rewritten your eternity, can you tell somebody about what He has done for you?

Do you know anyone at your work who needs to be encouraged? What could you do to help make a difference for someone else this week? What difference might that make for you?

What would be a meaningful source of encouragement to you?

Last month, in San Antonio, a baby was born at a Chick-Fil-A that was already closed. Could a story like that happen where you work? Why or why not? Would it involve you if it did?

How do we establish enough credibility to make a difference in the lives of our coworkers?

So, do you believe that a person can be completely ethical and still succeed in today's marketplace? Are business and ethics truly compatible?

Is following the Golden Rule a viable business strategy?

Is there anything that will change in the way you live out your faith in the workplace, because of this series? How do you intend to positively influence others for eternity?
