Five Words That Can Change Your Life

SORRY

Week 2

ICE-BREAKER:

When was the last time you said you were sorry?

DISCUSS:

Have you ever known someone who could never be wrong and never say they were sorry? How did that make you feel?

How can saying "sorry" be the catalyst for transformed lives and relationships?

READ: Luke 18:9-14

When it comes to recognizing your own sinfulness, do you relate more with the Pharisees or with the tax collector? Why?

When was the last time someone said sorry to you?

Have you given people permission to say they are sorry? How could you encourage this?

Describe how you feel when you say you are sorry to someone else.

How does it feel to be so vulnerable? How does this level of vulnerability affect your relationships?

Do you need to let go of any qualifying phrases (like "But at least I didn't...") that negate your apology?

APPLY:

What specific steps can you take this week to cultivate a spirit of humility?

To whom do you need to say "sorry"?
